“NATIONAL YOUNG ECONOMISTS CONCLAVE 2018”

Date: Thursday, 15th March 2018

Time: 12noon onwards

Venue: Seminar Room (C-5)

Department of Economics is pleased to announce the “National Young Economists Conclave 2018”, to be held on 15th March, 2018.

Undergraduate students of all recognised universities and colleges, across India, are invited to submit full length original research papers (MS-word file) on the themes relevant to the conclave. It is required that the paper should follow the standard format consisting of title, abstract, introduction, objectives, literature review, methodology, findings, conclusion and references.

Author’s name, affiliation and contact details must be figured in the paper. The main objective of the conclave is to instill research skills in undergraduate students. We aim to provide undergraduate students a platform to show their research skills.

Submitted research papers should be original work of the researcher. All re-published figures and tables should be cited with reference of the original source.

Key Themes of the Conclave

- Emerging Issues in Indian and Global Economy
- Global Economic Scenario Post SubPrime Crisis
- Structural Changes in Indian Economy
- Indian Capital Market and Crypto Currency

Sustainable Development, Climate Change and Environmental Economy
Changing Composition and Direction of International Trade Post
Liberalisation

Above mentioned themes are suitable for the conclave, but original research papers based on other relevant economic issues are also invited.

About the College

Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College is a reputed college of University of Delhi with NAAC 'A' grading and 34th ranking in MHRD survey, 2017. It was established in 1973 by Delhi Administration (now the Government of N.C.T. of Delhi). Named after one of the great sons of India, Shaheed Bhagat Singh, it is one of the constituent colleges of the University of Delhi, India. Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College embodied the spirit of social responsibility and cultural awareness reflecting the aspirations of the students. We look forward to the 21st century as a challenge and an opportunity to build our college as a vehicle of change and growth to prepare students to think critically and act responsibly in a rapidly changing global environment. Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College, SBSEC as we call it, is located in the south of Delhi, near Sheikh Sarai Phase-II and features a pleasant learning environment
