Prof. Sudhir Kumar Sinha
Principal

इस वर्ष कोरोना संकट का दौर पूरे विश्व पर छाया रहा। इस संकट से संपूर्ण विश्व की सामाजिक, आर्थिक, राजनीतिक व्यवस्था पर प्रतिकूल प्रभाव भी पड़ा। विश्वविद्यालय और छात्र जीवन इसके कारण गहन संकट में रहा है। छात्रों के लिए यह समय विशेष तनाव का रहा है। इस विकट स्थिति में अध्ययन - अध्यापन की निरंतरता को बनाए रखना बहुत बड़ी चुनौती रही है। सभी पारंपरिक अध्ययन - अध्यापन और परीक्षा के तरीके इस कोरोना के माहौल में संभव नहीं रहे।

विद्यार्थी का महाविद्यालय परिसर में प्रवेश संभव नहीं था; शिक्षक के साथ बैठकर आमने - सामने विषय और व्यक्तिगत समस्याओं की चर्चा भी संभव नहीं थी। पारंपरिक तरीके से परीक्षा भी नहीं हो सकती थी। पिछले वर्ष जिन विद्यार्थियों का कॉलेज में दाखिला हुआ था वह छात्र तो आज तक कॉलेज परिसर को देखने और कालेज जीवन का एहसास तक नहीं कर पाए हैं। कहीं साल खराब ना हो जाए, बदली परिस्थिति में किस तरह अध्ययन करें और परीक्षा दे, डिग्री मिलने के बाद नौकरी और जीवन - यापन से जुड़े सवाल इन सभी प्रश्नों से जूझते छात्रों के लिए यह वर्ष नितांत तनाव और चुनौती का रहा है। बहुत से छात्रों को इस मानसिक तनाव ने डिप्रेशन के कगार पर भी खड़ा कर दिया।

महाविद्यालय प्रशासन और शिक्षकों के लिए भी यह वर्ष स्वाभाविक रूप से चुनौतीपूर्ण रहा। अध्ययन - अध्यापन और छात्रों के सर्वांगीण विकास और उनकी समस्याओं को सुलझाने हेतु गैर पारंपरिक तरीकों को अपनाया जाने लगा जिसमें ऑनलाइन टीचिंग, ओपन बुक परीक्षा और इंटरनेट द्वारा संवाद महत्वपूर्ण हो गया। टेकरोलॉजी और इनोवेशन ने इस चुनौतीपूर्ण समय में ना ही सिर्फ नया रास्ता दिखाया बल्कि नए अवसर भी प्रदान किए। मुझे खुशी है कि शिक्षक, छात्र और नॉन टीचिंग स्टाफ के सम्मिलित प्रयास से कॉलेज

अध्ययन - अध्यापन की निरंतरता सुचारु रूप से चलाने में सफल रहा है। भारत ने अपनी आजादी के 75 वर्ष पूरे कर लिए हैं। यह वर्ष पूरा देश "आजादी के अमृत महोत्सव" के रूप में मना रहा है। आजादी ने हमें अमृत प्रदान किया है। आजाद भारत में उभरे सामाजिक- राजनीतिक - आर्थिक व्यवस्था ने देश के हर नागरिक को समृद्धि और गौरव पूर्ण जीने का अवसर प्रदान किया है। एक ऐसे भारत के निर्माण की प्रक्रिया चल रही है जहां देश में शांति व्यवस्था और हर एक नागरिक को अपने सपनों को साकार करने का अवसर मिल रहा है। हम सभी को एक ऐसे राष्ट्र के निर्माण की प्रक्रिया का भागीदार बनना है जिसका स्वरूप भारत के संविधान में वर्णित है। कॉलेज के सभी सदस्य अति भाग्यशाली हैं की हमें भगत सिंह सांध्य कॉलेज में पढ़ने - पढ़ाने का अवसर मिला है और हमारा कॉलेज शहीदे आजम भगत सिंह के नाम पर है। अतः हम पर राष्ट्र निर्माण की विशेष जिम्मेदारी है। मैं कॉलेज के सभी छात्रों, शिक्षकों और प्रशासनिक सदस्यों से आग्रह करता हूं कि भगत सिंह के मातृभूमि के लिए बलिदान के जब्बे से प्रेरित होकर अपने आप को नव भारत के निर्माण यज्ञ में समर्पित करें जिससे कि ना ही सिर्फ हमें बल्कि आने वाली पीढ़ियों को भी एक सुंदर समाज का अमृत मिलता रहे।

सांध्यालोक हमारे महाविद्यालय की उपलब्धियों का प्रतीक है। यह महाविद्यालय समुदाय की सोच को तो उजागर करता ही है, साथ में यह हमें वैचारिक मंथन के लिए भी उत्प्रेरित करता है और हमारी जिम्मेदारियों का भी एहसास कराता है। आजादी के अमृत महोत्सव वर्ष में सांध्यालोक के संपादक मंडल से मेरा आग्रह है की कॉलेज की हमारे इस मैगजीन को राष्ट्र निर्माण का एक अहम और अभिन्न हिस्सा बनाएं। लेखों, कहानियों कविताओं, इत्यादि के द्वारा महाविद्यालय समुदाय में राष्ट्र से जुड़ी समस्याओं और उनके समाधान का एक सशक्त प्लेटफार्म बनाएं और राष्ट्रीयता और राष्ट्र के लिए बलिदान की भावना से सभी को ओतप्रोत करें। मैं इस मुश्किल समय में सांध्यालोक की निरंतरता को बनाए रखने के डॉ सुमन यादव और मैगजीन समिति के सभी सदस्यों को बधाई देता हूं। मुझे पूर्ण विश्वास है कि सांध्यालोक का यह अंक ना सिर्फ आपको पसंद आएगा, अपितु यह ज्ञानवर्धक और राष्ट्र निर्माण के लिए प्रेरणादायक भी होगा। मैं पुनः मैगजीन समिति के सभी सदस्यों को सांध्यालोक के इस प्रकाशन के लिए बधाई देता हूं।

Dr. Negi's Message

शहीद, शहीद भगत सिंह सांध्य महाविद्यालय से जुड़े हुए पूरे 25 वर्ष हो चुके हैं। निरंतर "सांध्यलोक" अपनी यात्रा पर अनवरत आगे बढ़ रही है। यह पत्रिका अपने आप में हमारी तरह ही एक शिक्षक भी है और सखी भी। इसने भी वह सब उतार, चढ़ाव, प्रगति निखार और पढ़ाव देखे हैं जो इस कॉलेज में रहते हुए हमने देखे। ब्लैक एंड वाइट से रंगीन और रंगीन से इलेक्ट्रॉनिक स्वरूप में आते-आते "सांध्यलोक" हमें भी इन बदलावों का भागीदार बनाती है।

हर संपादक मंडल इसकी यात्रा में अपना गुणात्मक और रचनात्मक योगदान दिया है। पत्रिका के निखरने के साथ-साथ संपादक मंडल के सदस्यों के व्यक्तित्व में भी निखार आता है। यह मेरा व्यक्तिगत अनुभव है।

इस निखार को बहुत अच्छे से आभास करने का अवसर मिलता है जब हर वर्ष सांध्यलोक एक नए स्वरूप में अवतरित होकर पाठकों तक पहुंचती है।

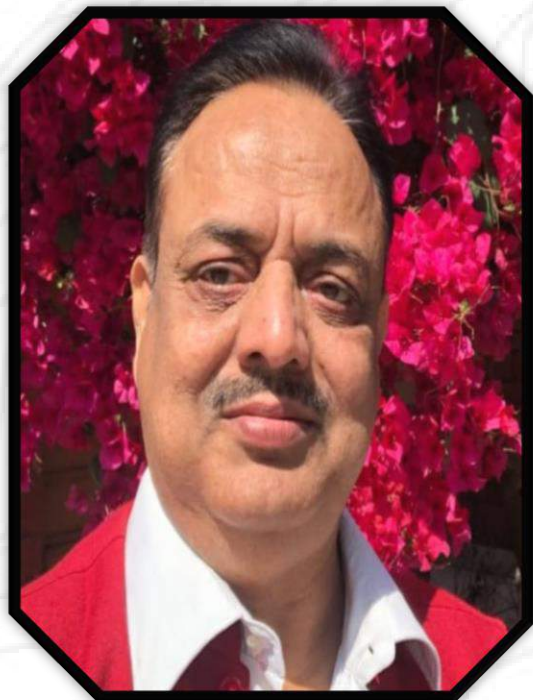

इस बार भी संपादक मंडल और "सांध्यलोक" के नए संस्करण के लिए मेरी हार्दिक शुभकामनाएं।

हम सब इसके इंतजार में हैं।

Meri Kalam Se...

A college magazine is a mirror of the college life. It reflects the literary, educational and sports activities going on in the college. It projects the important events celebrated in the college during a certain year. It also contains news about the college. Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College publishes its magazine 'Sandhyalok' annually.

'Sandhyalok' is a comprehensive magazine as it contains valuable articles from the college students and faculties. Thus this magazine plays an important role in the life of college students. It revives their memories. In this tough time, the focus of the magazine has been on the economic, social, and cultural effects of the pandemic. The magazine aims to create awareness about the pandemic, its prevention, and the way forward.

With a sense of pride and satisfaction I would like to say that with the active support of the management, faculty, Teacher-in-charges, non-teaching staff and students, 'Sandhyalok' has come alive. With all the efforts and contributions put in by the students, I truly hope that the pages that follow will make some interesting reading. A lay man can judge the standard of the education of a college just by going through the college magazine. It shows the activities of students in the field of their extracurricular enthusiasm as well as in their academic ventures. That is why every student looks forward for its publication and contributes to it. The magazine is received by the students very enthusiastically.

I am exhilarated in establishing this second issue of the college eMagazine 'Sandhyalok' for the academic session 2020-2021. I am glad to pen for this wonderful magazine as an appreciation of the commendable efforts put forth by the team and alerts on various student level competitions shall be included hence forth. As stated above, 'Sandhyalok' is a platform for our students to showcase their creative abilities hidden dreams and aspirations for writing. Our magazine aims towards bringing out the latent talent in our students through articles, poems, and experiences.

Success of this effort to bring out 'Sandhyalok' is the result of dedicated teamwork put in by all concerned. This magazine is a platform that exhibits the literary skills and innovative ideas of teachers and students. 'Sandhyalok' presents the hard work and dedication of students and contributions of teachers. First of all, I would like to thank our patron, Principal Prof Sudhir Kumar Sinha, for believing in this innovative venture and for his solid support and active engagement with the project. Negotiating an unprecedented lockdown situation due to the outbreak of second waves of Covid-19, we were not in a position to bring out a printed booklet of annual magazine this year too; therefore this journey took a virtual-online shape.

I would like to thank all my editorial team members Ms. Nidhi Lakhotra, Dr. Ranjeet Kumar, Ms. Kirti Singh, Mr. Saurabh Dubey, Ms. Ankita Shree, Dr. Manjari Gupta, Ms. Savita Kiran, Ms. Kalyanee Rajan, Ms. Pooja Sharma, Dr. Gaurav Nain, Dr. Krishna Kumar, Mr. Rajan, Dr. Manish Kumar and Mr. Ghanshyam Chand Yadav for helping me pull this through. I am also thankful to Mr Sunil Kumar, Secretary Staff Council and Mr Sarad Kumar Yadav for their sincere co-operation. I sincerely appreciate the dedication of my team of students: Mr. Kartik Kanojia, Ms. Sakshi Suri who ensured smooth completion of this voyage by putting their heart and soul into it.

I express my considerable appreciation to all the authors of the articles in this magazine. These contributions have required a generous amount of time and effort. It is this willingness to share knowledge, concerns and special insights with fellow beings that has made this magazine possible. I express my deep gratitude to all the Convenors and Members of the Committees for providing their respective reports to be incorporated in the magazine. I am highly thankful to all the Teachers in charge, all faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students of my beloved college for their direct or indirect support and guidance in facilitating this e-Magazine.

I would take this opportunity to urge you all to focus on all round development. You should always have your education laced with morality and ethics. This task has to be taken over by the academicians to provide value and ethic based education. You should all remember that, “honesty is the first chapter in the book of wisdom” and we should inculcate honesty and integrity in all what we do.

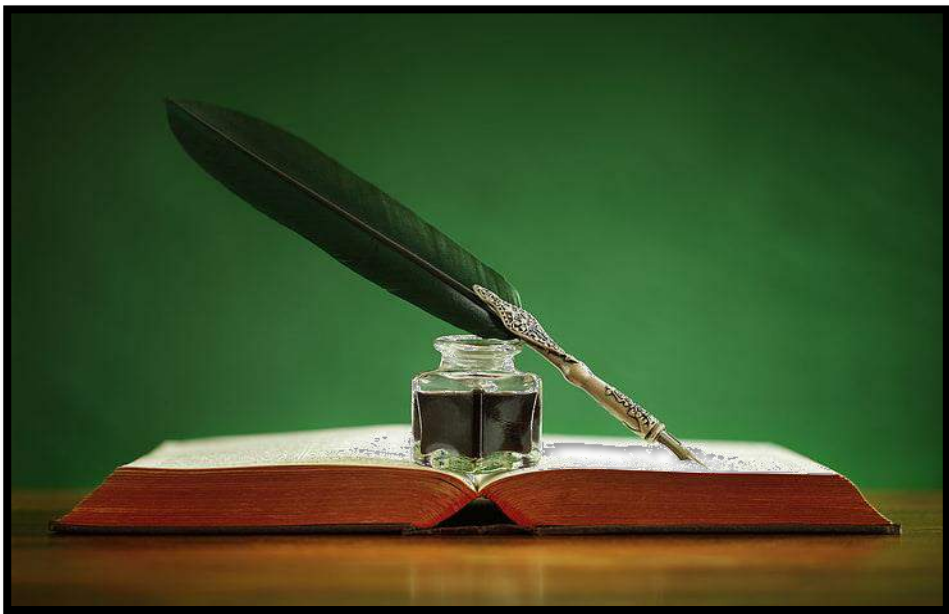

I earnestly hope and trust that, my esteemed academicians and students will be more interested in bringing the article with more bright concepts and innovative ideas in the next issue. I wish them to experience victory in all of their future endeavours. It is heartening to share the online version of ‘Sandhyalok’. Hopefully we shall be able to continue an e-magazine in future. Wishing the editorial team all the very best for their future endeavors.

Happy Reading!

INTERACTIVE SESSION: TRANSFORMING MINDS TOWARDS ENTREPRENEURSHIP

The Department of Commerce, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College organised an interactive session “A Sustainable Road Towards Entrepreneurship: A Transformational Journey Of Young Minds” on 11 November 2019. It was addressed by the Honourable Chief Guest Sh Manish Sisodia, the Deputy Chief Minister, Govt of NCT of Delhi. He stressed that every individual goes after a well-settled job for themselves rather than preparing their minds towards becoming a job provider. Such a fixed mindset is not only a problem for individuals but a glaring problem for the society as a whole. Generally, at IIMs getting a job of Rs 1 crore is highlighted in the media, but such a job seeker works for foreign MNCs. If job providers are celebrated instead of job seekers, it can transform society and help achieve the dual objective of generating employment and directing India towards the path of being a developed nation. The audience included students and teachers and the session was a huge success. The audience also sought Mr Sisodia’s suggestions on mindset at skills level and at service level. It was concluded that dynamic change in the environment is required where entrepreneurial mindset covers awareness, skills, and attitude that is required to be reflected in action to change the mindset of the society.

The guest of the events were Mr Robin Yadav, founder of White Magnets, Mr Rajbir Singh, founder of Rohan Infotech and CA Abhishek Mishra, founder of Edubirds. The entire session was quite interactive as all the participants were full of enthusiasm during the cross-question hour and showed their interest in becoming successful entrepreneurs. The objective of this event was to train students in interpersonal skills through interactions with the successful people. More than 100 students participated in the event, along with faculty members of different departments of the college..

AN ACADEMIC TALK ON HUMAN-TECHNOLOGY INTERFACE

An Academic Talk on 'Human-Technology Interface' was held in the auditorium of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College, University of Delhi on Monday, 24 February 2020. He could retain the interest and curiosity of the participants during the event.

A powerpoint presentation showcasing the performances of eight year old VARICO- Commerce Association since its inception to till date was extremely appreciated by the audience. Certificates were awarded to the students in order to mark their outstanding organisational skills during the event. The event came to an end on a promising note of an enriching academic experience and joyful learning among the young aspirants.

Virtual Talk: Role of Agribusiness Management in the Economic Development of Rural and Urban India

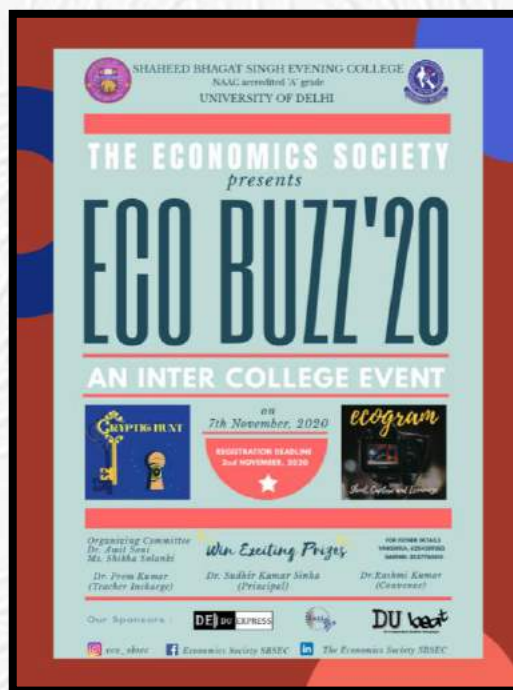

On 19 September 2020, the Economics Society of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College organised a virtual talk on “Role of Agribusiness Management in the Economic Development of Rural and Urban India”. The guest speaker for the event was Professor MK Awasthi. The event started with a welcome address by Dr Prem Kumar. It was followed by an Inaugural address by Honourable Principal Prof SK Sinha. He extended a warm welcome and expressed his gratitude to the guest speaker, faculty members and students. He appreciated the topic chosen for discussion. Following this, Dr Rashmi Kumar, Convenor of The Economics Department, gave a brief introduction of the guest speaker.

Prof Awasthi started his lecture by giving an introduction about agriculture, its importance in the Indian economy, and by explaining how things work in the agricultural sector. He briefly discussed the over-dependence on this sector for all basic needs and the disguised unemployment. He further talked about how food markets are now moving from European markets to Asian and African markets due to unsaturated demand and high profit scope. In today’s scenario, we need to consider consumer as the king to achieve maximum profit by fulfilling consumer needs. Then he threw light on the problems faced by farmers. Farmers do not have much exposure to the market being on the other side of the market chain. As a result, they end up getting exploited by middlemen who, in contrast, have all the information of the market. Irrigation is one of the important exercises practiced in agriculture. It requires modern technology and tools for effective working. The tools and equipments are a bit expensive for farmers and as a result farmers end up taking credit. Even after the usage of expensive tools, when the crop fails, the farmer loses not only his money but the debt money as well. This puts farmers in serious debt situations. Prof Awasthi then discussed the three pillars required for a development scheme to work - cost reduction, risk minimization, and profit or price optimization. Then the session turned towards the question answer round. Most of the questions by student were taken up from the chat box. The moderator of the event was Dr Amit Soni, Department of Economics, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College. He smoothly conducted the discussion session and made it very interactive. The speaker diligently addressed the questions and cleared all doubts. The session ended by presentation of a digital memento to the esteemed speaker and Honourable Principal. The event ended with a warm vote of thanks extended by Ms Shikha Solanki.

It aims at promoting all round development of students through an inclusive approach. It incorporates a range of teaching-learning methods in order to draw interests of students from different departments and courses, thereby, preparing for successful careers.

During the academic year 2020-21, the department engaged actively with students in various creative and intellectual spheres. The teacher in-charge for this year was Prof CS Dubey under whose leadership the department was able to maintain a busy calendar and smoothly switch to online teaching mode. The department anchored events with its society Carpe Diem and was abuzz with online activities in which students took the lead.

Here's a round-up of the academic year:

* Going Online: Taking the challenge posed by Corona crisis head on the English department launched itself aggressively into online teaching mode. Faculty members were quick to adopt digital tools and ensured that impact on student learning could be minimised. From digital attendance to presentations, screen sharing to online assignments, the English department actively adopted digital techniques. Care was taken to ensure participation of all students, including those who could not for some reason access online platforms. This helped the department develop a greater sense of community in a time of crisis. Department meetings were also conducted online and offline (when situation permitted) for exchange of experiences and ideas among faculty members.

* Webinars: In this academic year the students and teachers worked together to organize webinars and competitions. The department welcomed its students with an orientation meet and discussion on ‘Nationalistic Literature of India’ which was organised by members of Carpe Diem, the literary society. This event saw a lively panel discussion with panellists from diverse fields sharing their knowledge and ideas. The panellists for this webinar were Sarthak Parashar, a theatre enthusiast, Nidhi Dugar, a young journalist, and Harjeet Khanduja, an International Speaker.

With success of this event and seeing the active participation of students, another webinar was organised on ‘Contemporary Indian English Poetry’. This webinar also saw an engaging discussion followed by question answer session. All faculty members provided support for the success of these webinars by guiding and assisting students.

Towards the end of the semester students planned the annual fest ‘Panache’. The fest had an exciting line-up of creative competitions ranging from rapping battle to twisting popular literary plots.

* Social Media: The department society members have been actively using social media during the pandemic to create an environment of learning. Students create, curate, and post positive messages such as experiences, information, social cause or creative ideas. This helps them interact and engage virtually with each other and the society even as the pandemic conditions prevent a physical interaction.

WEBSITE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

An accessible and approachable website is vital for any institution in the present era. In case of educational institution, it becomes all the more crucial as they need to provide information for existing and prospective students, their parents, faculties and alumni. They often need to include reams of information in a way that makes everything easy to explore, especially when online communication has become very important during the pandemic. With commencement of the new academic session 2020-21, the consequences that pandemic brought with it led to the shutdown of colleges and institutions worldwide in the physical mode. This increased the dependency of the educational institutions, existing and new students more on the internet for imparting and extracting the needed information. Therefore, to meet the new challenges the need for revamping the existing website was envisaged. The already active Website Management Committee was, therefore, expanded to refurbish the website of the college.

In October 2020, revamping of the website was officially approved and the Website Management Committee was constituted with Dr Amit Soni as Convenor and Ms Savita Kiran as Co-Convenor. We approached Dr Anupama M Hasija, a senior colleague to be a member of this committee and she readily gave the consent to share her experience and expertise for the work at hand. Senior System Administrator (SSA) of the college Mr Chirag Malik, as might be expected, is an integral part of the work. We have also been consulting the principal, Prof Sudhir Kumar Sinha who has been a guiding force behind this project. His enthusiasm, guidance and trust in the team has been inspirational.

The core team was formed consisting of these three faculty members members, SSA and five student volunteers Aryan Raj, Ankit Mishra, Ayush Sharma, Ashmita Verma and Pranjal Shrivastava who had shown keen interest in the work. The team prepared a design for the new website after careful deliberations. Wireframe for each page was designed and tabs and subtabs for the entire website were determined.

After this initial work was done and the vendor was finalized, the humongous task of collecting data was addressed. For this, WMC collaborated with the HoDs of various departments and a liaison officer was appointed from each department to ensure the availability of required departmental information in a time-bound manner. Dr Amrita Kaur, Dr Amit Soni, Dr Anupama M. Hasija, Mr Jeetendra Kumar, Ms Savita Kiran, Dr Suman Swami, Mr Pankaj Bahot and Dr Anil Kumar from Department of Commerce, Economics, Geography, Political Science, English, Hindi, History and Physical Education respectively were the liaison officers. Ms. Shivali Veen and Ms. Suzanee Malhotra coordinated with Dr Amrita Kaur to provide the information related to the department of Commerce. Along with that, an editorial board consisting of faculty members Ms Pooja Sharma, Ms Tina Borah and Ms Shuchita Tripathi and existing students from various departments with lateral entry of Himanshu Chauhan, 3rd Year was formed to look after the content of the website. By January 2021, the wireframes were developed and the work for content of each section began. Additionally, data gathering, compilation and categorization that the process of revamping the website has involved would contribute towards NAAC Accreditation. Despite the roadblocks that the health crisis of the present time has brought, the target is believed to be achieved before the beginning of the new session.

Our team qualified the project selection round and made a presentation video which was published on Enactus national website for open voting, it was a tough fight between teams for securing top four places in the national finals. Due to the pandemic most of the events and projects were executed through online platforms. Enactus SBSEC conducted its first digital project along with numerous webinars. Here is a quick summary:

Projects Initiated

- ❖ Project Lakshya: Project Lakshya, ENACTUS SBSEC's first digital project is about imparting knowledge and educating unprivileged children of the age group 7-14 through online means. Inactus team volunteered to teach children in their neighborhood. In February the society collaborated with Rehabilitation Society of Visually Impaired (RSVI), an NGO for the upliftment of people with visually impairment. Inactus provided online sessions to students with visual impairment. At online sessions, Inactus volunteers guided students for their college and job interviews. The sessions included tips regarding dress code, common questions and their answers, how to conduct oneself etc. The session was a great success as participants engaged in discussions and cleared their doubts.

Under this project, members process kulhads into customized cups and planters for cafes and gift shops. They also recycle used cloth by making bags out of it. So far, Inactus has purchased Kulhads and finalised Lakshyam NGO and delivered it for processing. In the near future, Inactus plans to arrive at an arrangement with certain cafes and restaurants to establish a well-structured supply chain for products. The vision is to serve every café with Inactus product so that routine plastic waste can be cut down by providing biodegradable product that will not only save the environment but also improve people's health.
- ❖ Project Podtalk: Project Podtalk is an initiative through which Enactus aims to engage listeners in long-form meaningful content around entrepreneurship and issues of current importance. Tilak Utsav And Ambedkar Jayanti

On the occasion of Tika Utsav and Ambedkar Jayanti from 11-14 April the NSS Unit organised a series of social events to create awareness about the ongoing vaccination process.

● Tika Utsav was organised across the country from April 11-14 to fight against the pandemic. On this occasion, the NSS Unit hosted a set of activities. The celebration began with volunteers making videos about sanitizing, requesting people above 45 years of age to get vaccinated and creating awareness to stop the spread of the virus. Volunteers contributed creatively through posters and videos to sensitize people and fight against Covid-19. The volunteers also tried to spread awareness regarding vaccination process by going door to door while taking necessary precautions.

● All the volunteers were involved in 'Tika Utsav' against Covid-19. They chanted slogans in different languages and used them in handmade posters as well. They appealed to people to register and book an appointment online.

● With 11 April being celebrated as the birth anniversary of Jyotiba Phule and the 14 April being celebrated as the birth anniversary of Baba Saheb Ambedkar, the NSS unit urged the youth to come forward and help senior citizens and others in registering for Covid-19 vaccination. The unit volunteers assured people that immunization can save millions of lives and is widely recognized as one of the world's most successful and cost-effective health interventions. The goal of world immunization week was to urge greater action on immunization.

● During this four-day vaccination drive, targets were set at personal, societal and administration's level, and all efforts were made to meet them. The NSS unit marked the 'Mass Vaccination' Program till 14 April.

Mission Save Humanity

At the peak of the pandemic era when people were desperately looking for oxygen cylinders, hospital beds, ventilators, medicines, etc. some unscrupulous elements were also taking advantage to make profit. In such a scenario, the NSS Unit of SBSEC worked day and night to save humanity.

Understanding the dire situation in the wake of Covid-19, NSS volunteers of the college unit started a campaign 'Mission Save Humanity'. Under this, they provided verified sources of oxygen cylinders, hospital beds, ventilator beds, ICU beds, doctors' numbers, ambulance services, and other Covid related essentials such as medicines, plasma, and even free food.

More than 20 NSS volunteers worked for over 13-14 hours to gather, disseminate and propagate the verified sources of all the items.

During this period, the NSS unit volunteers helped more than 700 affected people in Delhi-NCR through this initiative. Volunteers used social media platforms like Instagram, Twitter, Facebook, and WhatsApp, for this purpose.

The NSS and its team believe that health care and frontline workers silently formed the first line of defence in the face of Covid-19. The mantle falls on the youth therefore to strengthen the efforts of health works by helping people in needs. For their efforts, the NSS volunteers also received many heartening thanksgiving calls and messages. The NSS unit has resolved to continue its efforts till the pandemic period passes.

While the year concluded, NSS campaigns continued and volunteers worked from home to spread awareness against Covid-19 through various innovative ways including poems, stories, and other engaging activities.

Achievements

The achievements of NSS continued through the year as volunteers participated various activities including blood donation drives. The spirit of service to the nation remained high as volunteers also served senior citizens at Chhattarpur Mandir in Delhi.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT CENTRE

Founded in July 2020, The Sustainable Development Centre of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College, University of Delhi, aims to take a step towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals 2030 as identified by the United Nations. Sustainable development cannot be achieved overnight as it requires everyone to take small steps in this direction. The very first Sustainable Development Centre (SBSEC) is one such baby step towards achieving SDGs.

Thinking about economic viability, environmental protection and social equity is the need of the hour and the Sustainable Development Centre is committed to bringing about little but visible changes.

MISSION/VISION

The Sustainable Development Centre (SDC) envisions sensitizing the community at large about the need to achieve SDGs through effective youth participation. This society marks a theme every year and dedicates itself to it and this practice began with “Health and Well-Being” which is the third goal in the list of SDGs. This goal aspires health and well-being for all and at every stage of life. It includes a commitment to end epidemics like AIDS, Tuberculosis, Malaria, Covid-19 and other communicable diseases by 2030. It also aims to achieve universal health coverage and access to safe and effective medicines and vaccines for all. Over the span of the year, SDC members mapped out activities that directly relate to this theme, and conducted activities for general awareness among student members and their families in this regard.

2020-21 EVENTS

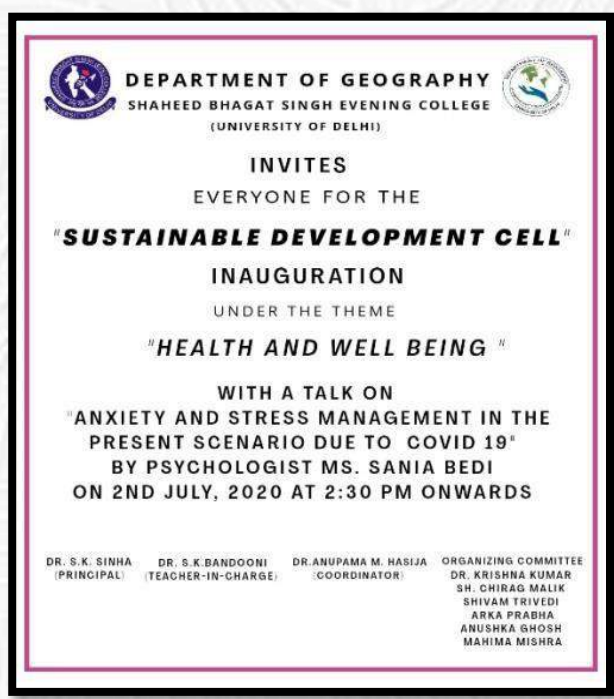

This was the very first academic year of SDC and members conducted some remarkable events and activities:

WOMEN DEVELOPMENT CENTRE

The WDC, SBSEC convened by Dr. Kavita Yadav and co-convened by Dr. Shalu Suri and Ms. Manika Gupta believes in and stands and strives for upliftment, emancipation, and empowerment of women and also the other marginalized and discriminated genders. We believe in achieving it by sensitizing our students about issues such as gender discrimination, misogyny, sexual harassment, abuse, personal space, consent, and so on. By training our students to raise their voice and question the existing patriarchal order. By also forcing them to self-evaluate, identify and shred the inherent patriarchy and misogyny which exist within them due to social conditioning. We also Channelize our efforts to create a Safe Space for Women and other Marginalized Genders where they can express themselves and arm themselves with Courage, Confidence, and Determination to fight the odds of this Patriarchal world.

The event comprised various competitions based on women-centric themes to provide students a fun opportunity to portray their talents and skills. All the competitions received great participation from not just universities in India but students from abroad as well. This year Astitva was more than just a means of celebrating women and other marginalized communities. 'COMMUNITY COMMUNICATION AND COUNSELING'

WDC-SBSEC is sensitive and realized its responsibility towards society in this time of national medical emergency. Hence, it comes up with the program entitled 'Community Communication And Counseling', wherein Covid Care-cure Centre, has been established to initiate community communications with the people in society relating to COVID induced health issues, eating habits, home- bound healthy lifestyle etc. The online initiative shall be worked from on its official social media accounts. The program is indigenously drafted by our team to spread alert and awareness messages around ongoing COVID vaccination- drive, holistic care and cure, health safety measures through Yoga, aerobics and by incorporating similar creative techniques to keep the people motivating. Indebted Students have exhibited their sensitivity and courage in this unprecedented national crisis when the nation is combating with the severe second wave of Corona Virus. The said program may be seen as student own way to pay humble tribute, their service to humanity and to return back to society. As the program is IN-PROCESS, further detailed report and summary can only be submitted after completion of this program.

कोविड-19 महामारी में हमें अपनी समाज के प्रति जिम्मेदारियों का एहसास हुआ। जिसके लिए हमने "कम्युनिटी कम्युनिकेशन एवं काउंसलिंग" नामक कार्यक्रम का आयोजन हमारे सोशल मीडिया हैंडल पर किया है। इसके तहत हम लोगों के अंदर कोविड-19 के प्रति जागरूकता फैला रहे हैं। हम लोगों को एक दूसरे की मदद करने, सकारात्मक सोच रखने तथा योग करने के लिए प्रेरित कर रहे हैं। इसके तहत हम लोगों को टीकाकरण करने, मास्क लगाने और दो गज दूरी रखने के लिए भी आग्रह कर रहे हैं। यह मुहिम हम #togetherwewillwin के द्वारा चला रहे हैं। इसके जरिए हम समाज के प्रति अपनी संवेदनाएँ और मनुष्यता को व्यक्त करना चाहते हैं।

कोरोना से जूझते अपने दोस्तों के लिए

तुम्हें अपने सीने से लगा,
 हाथों पे हाथ रख,
 तुमसे ये कहूँ,
 मत परेशान हो,
 तुमसे बेशक बहुत दूर हूँ, पर
 मेरी जान हो तुम,
 जीवन की बहार हो तुम,
 समय फिर बदलेगा,
 हम मिलेंगे,
 कलियाँ खिलेंगी,
 भंवरीं की गूँज होगी,
 तुम्हारे होंठों पर फिर मुस्कराहट होगी
 फिजां कुछ गुलाबी -गुलाबी होगी
 मेरे दोस्त, हौसला रखो, कल फिर सुबह होगी।

माँ

मुझे याद है वो हमेशा मेरे साथ होती थी,
बोर्ड एग्जाम मेरे थे पर रात-भर वो भी न सोती थी,
जब परेशान मैं होता था, आँखें उनकी भी भर जाती थीं,
मुझे समझा कर वो मेरा हौसला बढ़ाती थीं,
ऐसा कोई अल्फ़ाज़ नहीं जो उनके प्यार को बयां कर सके,
क्या लिखूँ उनके बारे में, वो सब कुछ छिपा सकती हैं,
वो माँ है जनाब हर गम के बाद भी मुस्कुरा सकती हैं।

खुद चाहें भूखी रहें, बच्चे ना भूखे सो जाएं।
अपने लिए है वो बेखबर , बच्चो पर तनिक न आंच आएं, तकलीफ हो चाहे कितनी भी बड़ी डटकर लड़ना सिखा सकती हैं,
वो माँ है जनाब हर गम के बाद भी मुस्कुरा सकती हैं।

सुबह उठने से लेकर रात की सोने तक,
बच्चो की किलकारी गूँजती घर के कोने -कोने तक,
उंगली पकड़कर चलना ही या हो फिर लिखना,
जीत में खुशियां मनाना या हार में हो सीखना
डूबती नैया को पार लगा सकती हैं,
वो माँ है जनाब हर गम के बाद भी मुस्कुरा सकती हैं।

कोशिशें

मन रोता है, तन धोता है, और ये दिल सब सहता है।
 गुजरती है ये जिस -जिस पर,
 वो एक दिन उस ईश्वर से जरूर ये पूछता है, क्या सच में सब अच्छे के लिए होता है?
 और जब सहता है कोई इसको,
 वो इसे कहना तो दूर ,सोचने तक से डरता है
 फिर एक दिन वो खुद को संभालता है की उठ ,ये सब सबके साथ होता है
 पर पता नही ये कोशिशों का बाँध बार-बार टूटता है लेकिन अपनों को कुछ देने के लिए वो इसे हर बार जोड़ता है

मत सोच की ये जंग सिर्फ तू ही लड़ा है, मुझमें भी खुद से हारा एक युद्ध घमासान मिलेगा

चुप हूं तो यह नहीं की कोई ग़म नहीं,
इस दिल के कोने में डरा- सहमा बच्चा एक नादान मिलेगा

ना जाने कितनी दफा खुद ही दफनाया है अपने अरमानों को, कभी गौर से तो देख मेरी मुस्कुराहट के पीछे
अरमानों से दबा एक शमशान मिलेगा

मुश्किलों से लड़ता एक साहसी इंसान मिलेगा ।

वो शाम

याद है वो शाम, जब हम सब मिल करते थे
 चेहरे पर मुस्कराहट और बातों के पुल बंधा करते थे हँसते-हँसते एक दूसरे को चिढाना
 रुठना और फिर मनाना
 ऐसे ही खेलो में मस्त हो जाना
 मम्मी के वापस बुलाने पर भी न जाना
 शाम का ढलना ,और वापस घर जाना
 मम्मी की फटकार के साथ टीवी का आनंद उठाना
 फिर रात का आना, अपना खाना खाकर बिस्तर पर पड़ जाना
 और मम्मी के आने पर अपना तकिया लगाकर उनकी बाहों में सो जाना
 ये थी वो शाम की कहानी
 ना कोई राजा ना कोई रानी
 हम सबकी ये अपनी कहानी

प्रकृति

पावन नदियों से पूछे पर्वत
तुम अपना जल कहा बहाती हो
मेरे बाजुओं से निकलकर
कहाँ-कहाँ बह जाती हो।

कोमल, निर्मल, करती कल-कल
नदी बोली होकर आतुर
मेरे जल से तृप्त होकर
मानव होते हर पल व्याकुल।

मीठे मीठे रस से भरकर
पूछे तितली फूल से हिलकर
इन टहनियों से अलग होकर
किसको खुशबू दे जाते हो।

गर्व से बोले फूल महककर
दिनभर महकू, माला बनकर
कभी कृष्ण तो कभी शिव, प्रभुओं के मस्तक चढ़ जाता हूँ।

इसी बात पर बोले अम्बर,
क्यों चाँद तुम हर बार कहा छुप जाते हो,
जरा ये तो बताओ तुम कब और कैसे, अपना प्रकाश दिखलाते हो।

चाँद चांदनी फैलाकर
अपनी चमक को अपनाकर
बोला बन जाऊँ मैं कभी अंधेरोँ का राजा, या कभी बच्चों का मामा

कभी प्रेम का प्रतीक मैं
कभी अस्त निर्जीव मैं
कभी पूर्ण बन पूर्णिमा
कभी रात का मुझपे जिम्मा,

कभी शिव के सर पर मैं
कभी पर्वत शिखर पर मैं
कभी लोग देखे मुझे मुस्कुराएं
कभी लोग देख मुझे अपना मन बहलायें,

इतने में बोल पड़े अंबर
तुम तो प्रकृति के सिकंदर
रातों के राजा हो तुम
अमृत जैसे ताज़ा हो तुम

अब पूछ पड़े तारे बेचारे
अम्बर बताओ तुम कितने प्यारे
अब अंबर बोले मैं अनंत हूँ प्रिय
मेरे अंदर तुम्हारा है अतीत

तुम तारे हो अपना काम करो
चमक - चमक जग में नाम करो
तुम मुझसे सवाल मत पूछो
मानव कामनाओं के लिए टूटो,

प्रकृति अंबर ये चाँद - सितारे
नदिया झरने फूल जो प्यारे मानव मगर इन सबको ललकारे
और हर बार प्रकृति जीते, वाकी सब हारे।

तर्क तूर्य उदघोष करके उनको नित्य दबाना होगा , पिछड़े वंचित बच्चे -बूढ़े सबको गले लगाना होगा ,
यूं ही नहीं पूजती दुनिया जन मानस मे जाना होगा ।

रहते हैं राजनेता, भव्य भवनों महल प्रासादों में , लोकनायक का तंबू लगता है कहीं खुले मैदानों में ,
बटन दबाते समय तुम्हे निज का स्वार्थ दबाना होगा,
बचाना है अस्तित्व तो भारत,लोकतंत्र बचाना होगा ।

भेदभाव की नीति, दोहरेपन से छुटकारा पाओ
नाग कालिया देखो जब तो, उसके फन पर चढ़ जाओ
कृष्ण, तो फिर भी कृपालु थे तुम शिव का तांडव दिखलाओ, लोकतंत्र के लोगों अपनी ताकत जरा तुम बतलाओ ।

दिया सिंहासन तुमने और तुमसे ही विश्वासघात हुआ, बहुत हुआ अब बहुत हुआ, बहुत इनका अट्टहास हुआ,
सत्ता के लोभी परजीवी से, कोमल पत्तों तुमको बचना है
मतदाता हो बनने वाले, तुमको बच्चों इनसे बचना है ।

कूदना नहीं कभी कीचड़ में, बच्चों कमल खिलाने को और हाथ सिर्फ उठे नही, बलशाली कहलाने को हंसुआ और हथौड़ी लेकर देश नही तोड़ा जाता
राजनीति से रिश्ता जोड़ो, दलों से नही जोड़ा जाता ।

आम आदमी कह -कह कर, जनता को वो चूस गए
डेंगू का मच्छर भागा पर, नए वाले घर में घुस गए, बताता हूं वैभव बिहार का, जहां लालटेन बुझ गया
पर ये जो तीर ले लिया वो खुद ही को चुभ गया।

झारखण्ड में बाबू साहब खड़े है तीर कमान लिए, पूज्य पिताजी ने न जाने अब तक है कितने प्राण लिए,
चलो चले चलता हूं तुमको पश्चिम बंगाल लिए, खड़ी हुई सरकार जहां बहुत बड़ा भ्रमजाल लिए।

चांद सितारे बिगड़े जहां उस उत्तर प्रदेश चलो
चलो साइकिल वाले दोस्त चलो, हाथी के देश चलो
महाराष्ट्र में घड़ी का कांटा, कांटा नहीं अब तीर हुआ शक्कर भूरी हुई यहां अधिक लाल है नीर हुआ ।

उत्तर दक्षिण पूरब पश्चिम या फिर भारत के मध्य चलो
अब तो छोड़ी ये छिछलापन जरा होके योजनाबद्ध चलो

दायरा

दायरा ये दरवाजों का
दायरोँ से बंधे दरवाजों मे बंद हैं हम,
खुले दरवाजे अब सपनों से हैं,
खुशियों की आस लगाए,
खिड़कियों से ताक रहा हूं दुनिया,
पर दुनिया पर अन्धकार भारी है, क्योंकि हर तरफ महामारी है

सांस लेने को तड़प रहा हर तरफ इन्सान है, आखों मे आँसू भरे चीखता -बिलखता
उसका रिश्तेदार है,
क्योंकि अब साधनों का मारा हर अस्पताल है,
मदद कर पाने मे असमर्थ,
आत्महत्या कर रहा है डॉक्टर ,
सच इन्सान अन्दर से टूट चुका है कुछ इस कदर,

अब देश की कुछ ऐसी ही है खबर,
हर रोज अपनों को खो रहा है कोई ना कोई
मौतें भी इतनी की दफ़न करने को जगह कम
क्योंकि भर चुके हैं सारे शमशान,

सच, खुले दरवाजे अब सपनों से हैं,
दायरोँ के नियम हैं सख्त,
दुनिया पर अंधकार भारी है, हर तरफ महामारी है

पर अब भी मन मे विश्वास बाकी है,
 आशाओं की किरणों ,
 रोशन सवेरा जरूर लाएंगी
 खुशियां फिर से लौट आएंगी
 टूटेंगे ये दायरे,
 और दरवाजे फिर से खुलेंगे
 लोग निकल सकेंगे घरों से
 और दुनिया हो जायेगी पहले जैसी क्योंकि हम अब भी हारे नहीं हैं इस महामारी से युद्ध जारी है
 युद्ध मे सबकी हिस्सेदारी है
 हां इस मुश्किल घड़ी मे दुनिया साथ सारी है सच आशाओं की किरणों
 रोशन सवेरा जरूर लाएंगी
 टूटेगा ये दायरा दरवाजों का
 खुशियां फिर से लौट आएंगी

स्वाहिश:- एक बच्ची की

चाहती हूं मैं ऐसी दुनिया
जहां हथियार ना हो,
मज़हब ना हो,
नफ़रत ना हो,
घृणा ना हो,

मैं मिटा देना चाहती हूं, उन कागजातों पर बनी सरहदों को,
जिन्होंने ख़त्म कर दिया है प्रेम और मोहब्बत जैसी भावनाओं को,
सदियों से छीनती रहीं हैं जो, हजारों माताओं से उनके बेटों को
मैं कारण बनना चाहती हूं , अंत में खड़ी स्त्री को उसके अधिकार दिलाने का

उन सभी भूखे पेटों कि आह को दूर करने का
जो करवट बदलते हैं रात भर भूखे पेट के कारण मैं मिटा देना चाहती हूं उस सदियों की नफरतों को
जो बनती है दरार दो भिन्न धर्म के बच्चों कि दोस्ती के बीच, मैं चाहती हूं मिटाना उन शब्दकोष के शब्दों को,
जो कराते हैं परिचित नई पीढ़ी को नफ़रत भरे शब्दों से, मैं चाहती हूं तो सिर्फ और सिर्फ आदि से अंत तक
प्रेम, प्रेम सिर्फ प्रेम।

In February, this year, I heard (heard because I've radio in my house for authentic news) the statement directly from PM, India saying, 'Government has no Business to be in Business'. Our students are from Humanities and Commerce. Let us see the said statement in both context. For Humanities Students, they need to understand and redefine the terms - PSU's, Democracy and Governance at 75 years of independence sans any financial functions For Commerce Students, they need to see the statement in term of financial, commercial and managerial context of the statement, made by PM of the nation albeit privatisation of economic activities.

I'm only writing this article, when our nation is in dire need of medical-care of the victims of deadly coronavirus, so called II wave. Uncertainty looms over the reports, data and other similar metrics in public domain for efficient planning and controlling measures.

On one hand, Government plans to give up the business especially PSU's, can never be seen in such a casual way. I'm awaited to participate in much anticipated debate around the statement on the diaspora with noted economists, academicians, researchers, politicians, bureaucrats and other stakeholders. Apparently, the consequences may be discussed over, only after studying the prolonged strategies about the renewal of existing Business Model, whereby Government wished to step down and look for social welfare.

What kind of welfare in society when in an interview board, interviewers are best known to interviewee's father, who is evidently, a die-hard compatriot of saffron colour, this is all merit and welfare, we're debating over for our young aspirants. We courageously need to place the transparency in system and de-classify the files before they lose intentionally. Above all, to ebb the culprit's intent to cheat, rob the public office, demand them to prosecute as perpetrators and must be punished withholding their finances.

On another hand, constitutional- principle of equality now be sowed to its fullest at 75 years of independence for reaping cultural, socio-economic benefits i.e. – marginalized, vulnerable, minorities and under-privileged must be empowered with equal opportunities in education, employment, health & medical care, legal aid etc. Denial or delayed services are categorically be seen as biased and exploitative in nature. Here, the monitoring agencies must be empowered and fairly operated for desired results. Here, I would like to mention that turning blind eye over any issue for personal gains is major roadblock to the successful implementation of Constitutional Rights.

I think to write about Ram-Rajya is inevitable, where an equal, civilized & just society is envisioned by our freedom fighters, and national heroes. Youngsters are sensitive and full of energy and enthusiasm, now it's our moral obligation towards our nation to guide and channelize our youngster's energy and enthusiasm in the progressive direction. You are leaders of tomorrow, and that tomorrow is now- today. So, be prepared to take the baton in your hand as you've gone through a lot in pandemic at this young age. Digitalise education, horrible stories of our nears and dears, national health & medical care sector, policies and practices of our nation etc are no more secrets, which you cannot decode now.

On nation's Call, stand up now, select your course of action wisely,

The Secret Power of Mindfulness

"Look past your thoughts, so you may drink the pure nectar of This Moment."

- Rumi

Do we always have an understanding or the awareness of the present moment we live in? Do we even bother to be aware of the surreal surroundings around us? Do we pay attention on our route to somewhere to the things passing by like the beautiful birds pruning their feathers, or the bubbling kids playing with full zeal, the old man sun-bathing in the garden or the beautiful graffiti drawn on the Metro station wall communicating a thought-provoking message? Have we even bothered enough? The answer is probably no for many of us. This is mindfulness that many of us are lacking. Mindfulness means simply bringing your awareness into the present moment

Humans are often characterized for ruminating over their thoughts and worrying about them. The demands and pressures of a busy professional role and family life can also lead to over thinking and worrying which can be stressful. But surprisingly there is a way out of this normalized trend, and the secret power for this is mindfulness. Mindfulness enables you to shift past over several of your wandering thoughts and being present in 'the moment'. Being present means being aware of your surroundings, the sounds and all that is going on around you, in contrast to letting your mind wander and worry here and there like what would be your action going forward or what has been already done by you.

There are many benefits to be gained from practicing mindfulness- a secret power to still your mind from the hundreds of thoughts that are racing through your mind. It makes you feel calmer, more confident, and indeed stress free. It enables you take a break from the busy treadmill of your life and allows you to be present in 'the moment', without thinking over past or future thus nurturing calmness. It takes the spotlight off you and allows you to be present and have presence. With that comes an assured confidence.

Enabling you to shift yourself meandering over many thoughts and being in 'the moment', indeed enhances your focus at work, improves your performance for the better and reduces stress.

Many people mistakenly think mindfulness means setting aside a time of the day for meditation, and this thinking perhaps hinders them to practice mindfulness. However, once you start being mindful for even say five minutes a day, and extend this practice each day by say ten minutes, it would eventually be a part of your life and come naturally to you as a part of your personality also. Thus, all of us must, be in the moment, live the moment and enjoy it to the most.

An Ideal World: A Perfect Myth

What is your idea of an ideal world? The answer may vary from person to person because each one of us has a different understanding and opinion of the word ideal. But most of us would define an ideal world where everybody is equal and where terms like 'racism,' 'casteism', etc. don't exist; while for some it may be where your social etiquette isn't defined by your gender; or where crimes like rape, murder, corruption, political unrest aren't in existence, it could be where people feel safe. It may also include certain beliefs and ways of things that all of us would believe in.

Many of these beliefs, although we talk of them as if we practice them, none of us believes in these beliefs. Such ideas surely are debatable but that's about it. They are good to talk and write about but the majority of the human population doesn't imply such beliefs. And that is one of the reasons why some of you reading this might not like what I've written next but I hate to break it to you because it is the truth. A bitter truth that nobody wants to accept, but everybody subconsciously knows. The idea of such an ideal world is nothing but a perfect myth. We all hope and believe in the latter, but the former is our reality full of corruption, inequality, power, and all of these are very crucial and imperative elements of the practical world. We have raised a society that promotes all these elements and it's not a one-time thing, this will take centuries to get fixed. And the pace at which humanity is going, the chances of it getting fixed gets exponentially reduced.

The simplest way to understand this is by this quote by Laurell K. Hamilton that goes like- "They say there is no light without dark, no good without evil, no male without female, no right without wrong. That nothing can exist if its direct opposite does not also exist." I'm not here to define what's right and what's wrong I am simply here to tell you what you already know but won't accept; what we want is a dream, a paradise that isn't real, that doesn't exist and that cannot exist.

Look at the way we all talk about how women are equal and how much they've accomplished but even today a girl isn't considered 'successful' if she doesn't marry a man. No matter how qualified a girl gets, she must learn to do domestic chores like cooking, cleaning, etc. to become the 'perfect' woman. If we talk about equality, we must practice it. Inequality based on caste, color and, gender is the enemy of mankind. However, confusing this form of equality with other forms is wrong. Saying that everybody deserves equal opportunities, equal status, etc., we are somewhere forgetting that if this happens, then the phenomena of good, better, best has to disappear. And if that happens there will be no scope of growth, on both individual and environmental level. Let me make this clearer with an example. There are three people X, Y and, Z. They're appearing for the same interview for the same vacancy and, at the same multi-national company and have attained the same education with almost equal percentage. Only one out of those three will get selected, so does that mean that the other two are treated unequally? Or their rights have been manipulated? No. It is these differences that make the world work. If everybody comes first then the entire value of being first will get nullified. If everybody comes first, there will be no first.

Whatever you are reading here, somewhere deep down all of us will agree to it but won't accept it because it is morally and ethically incorrect to think this way. But does that make it go away or make it right? The society in which we're living has become so superficial that people want to act so woke and aware on social media, they support the LGBTQ community but at the same time instantly label or tag individuals as 'homo', 'faggy', and whatnot. We are so occupied with pretending to be somebody else online, that we've forgotten what really matters. Mental health is still given minimum attention in real life contrary to what happens online. And if somebody tries to express themselves then they're either made fun of, or they are made to shut their mouth or again, labelled as 'attention-seeker,' 'slut,' 'whore', and so on.

Then, if we talk about the political structure of our country, to be precise, our leaders who are supposed to be serving the public, who

Budget Still Didn't Budge

On February 1, came our much-anticipated fresh budget in a tablet. Honourable Finance Minister, Nirmala Sitharaman Ji carried the hot-red budget in her hands with care and smile on her face. After the budget was announced the same suit followed. News debates started, views started pouring in, many criticised, many appreciated, many stayed mum and for some it was out of their capacity to engage. But a thing that did not change, not just this year but since many years is the negligent importance or relief given to the 'middle class' of the Country. The problems of the economic middle class of the country still waits to be budgeted. This crisis is so huge that a change in government never results in any betterment of the huge population. A take on the few things that the budget had for the middle class.

The government with a lot of ease ignored how taxing the pandemic has been on the middle class. And therefore, kept the already soaring high Tax Rates tall, calm and still. The Duty Hikes that followed even made bald men grow spikes. With petrol already nearing ₹100/litre, a further 15% customs duty on some auto parts really made me wonder, will the people still plan to get a vehicle that runs on petrol? Minister did a great job by slashing basic excise duty and special additional excise duty on both fuels but introduced a 2.5% cess for agricultural infrastructure development. So, it was a smile that was reaching the ears but suddenly dropped down to the chin. We all must thank the government that they exempted our grandparents from filing Income Tax Returns and helped in the financial crises of the family.

At the end, I must say, that the budget is not at all bad for the rich people and the poor people but it is the middle-class people who are in despair. From farmers' protest to a politician's rally or a government subsidy the poor, it is the 'middle-class' who pays and hence should have a better prospect of attaining the funds of the budgetary race.

Environmental Contamination: A Social Issue

Humans are eating away their own life support systems at a rate unseen in the past 10,000 years by degrading land and freshwater systems, emitting greenhouse gases and releasing vast amounts of agricultural chemicals into the environment. The current energy model is worsening not only air pollution by the burning of fuel, increasing the CO₂ emissions which cause global warming but has also led to the worsening of climate change.

Climate change has had extreme impacts in India. A study conducted by the Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar, had predicted an increase in extreme rainfall events in Southern and Central India and had linked it to global warming due to climate change. Rise in average global temperatures have led to a worrying trend of no rain for long periods and then a sudden bout of excessive rainfall, causing extreme weather events, particularly floods which took lives, destroyed homes and agricultural yields.

A report from a research by 35 global institutions, listed a number of ways climate change threatens fisheries and aquaculture. It not only leads to rise in sea-surface temperature rise and more intense and frequent extreme-weather events but also ocean acidification. This will lead to contamination of fishes which provides one fifth of animal protein to 5.2 billion people, especially those in low-income and middle-income countries. There will be a spike in various infections such as- cholera, gastroenteritis, wound infections and several others in India due to increased sea surface temperature. The report also warned that children will be among the most to suffer from the rise in infectious diseases – with climatic suitability for the vibrio bacteria that cause cholera rising 3 per cent a year in India since the early 1980s. Mortality due to vector-borne diseases such as dengue will rise because of rising temperatures globally.

Another study conducted by the Climate Impact Lab in collaboration with the Tata Centre for Development at the University of Chicago has projected that 1.5million more Indians may die per year from extreme heat due to climate change by 2100, and that India's energy use will more than double in the next 20 years, driven largely by fossil fuels. Their report titled "The study, Climate Change and Heat-Induced Mortality in India" suggests emissions continue to be as high as they are at present, India will see a death rate of about 60 percent 100,000 by 2100, the study says. This projected death rate is about the current death rate from oral cancer in India, which is the most common cancer in the country. It also estimated that the average annual temperature in India is expected to increase from 24-degree C to 28-degree C. The number of extremely hot days (above 35 degree C) across India is expected to increase by over eight times, from 5.1 per year in 2010 to 42.8 in 2100. By 2050, there are expected to be 15.8 extremely hot days a year. The National Capital Region is projected to see 22 times more extremely hot days and more than 23,000 climate-related deaths annually by 2100 in a high-emission scenario. Odisha is projected to see the highest increase in the number of extremely hot days, at about 30 times more than what it is today. Punjab is projected to experience 85 extremely hot days a year, the highest among all states. According to the same report, the risks associated with extreme temperatures vary around the world and are dependent upon the wealth of a country.

For instance, the impact of a single hot day on the annual mortality rate of a wealthy and warm city such as Houston, US, will be 0.4 deaths per 100,000. The same will be double for a warm and poorer city such as Delhi, at 0.8 deaths per 100,000.

Taking its toll all over the life forms, it has even targeted fauna. More than 5000 birds have been buried and so far more than 10 thousand birds are estimated to have died, 25 species of birds have been victims of premature death and which include migratory birds as well at Sambhar Lake, the Indian Express reported. Meanwhile, the generation of other pollutants, such as nitrogen oxides (NO and NO₂), sulfur oxides (SO₂ and SO₃) and particulate matter, are contaminating the air. Atmospheric pollution causes six million deaths a year worldwide and a quarter of lung cancer cases, heart attacks and strokes. This pollution and heat stress will not take its toll only on childhood due to the Dangerous levels of outdoor fine particulate air pollution (PM 2.5) which had contributed to over 529,500 premature deaths in the country in 2016, this environmental contamination will continue to affect people lifelong, certainly adversely affect their life expectancy and other demographic indicators.

In the past few years, there has been a growing fear about a possible consequence of climate change: zombie pathogens. Specifically, bacteria and viruses preserved for centuries in frozen ground coming back to life as the Arctic's permafrost starts to thaw. A heat wave in the Arctic thawed a thick layer of the permafrost, and a bunch of reindeer carcasses started to warm up. The animals had died of anthrax, and as their bodies thawed, so did the bacteria. Anthrax spores spread across the Tundra region leading to human casualty. What pathogen would be next? Smallpox? The 1918 flu? The Atlantic wrote in November 2020 that climate change has the ability to awaken earth's forgotten pathogens, of these pathogens some may be able to survive a gentle thaw and if they do, researchers warn, they could reinfect humanity.

Climate change is melting permafrost soils that have been solid for thousands of years, and as the soils melt they have the potential to release ancient viruses and bacteria that may be capable of springing back to life. The need of the hour is an invention that uses solar energy to consume carbon dioxide and release oxygen along with a useful residue. This invention was gifted by Mother Nature to us years back from the beginning of life in plenty of amount, which we are destroying, indeed “trees”. These trees will not only promote evapotranspiration, reduces wind velocity, their foliage absorbs sun rays which reduces convection and keeps moderate temperatures and the list goes on. We need to stop deforestation and begin afforestation. It's not that afforestation is a new concept but now we need to do it effectively. Government authorities plant saplings, but those are not taken care of properly as a result of which their survival chances are least. As a part of this society we need to not only take care of those plants but also grow more plants whenever and wherever possible, be it gardens, balcony, roof of the house etc. Our small measures will bring a big change in no time if we all do this together not by any compulsion but voluntarily.

Unseen Bihar: The Hidden Heavenliness

What is the first thing which comes to your mind when you think of Bihar? It might not be a good site in your imagination because Bihar is considered one of the most backward States in India. Bihar portrays nothing but poverty, joblessness, underdevelopment, lower standard of living, illiteracy and god knows what else. It seems as if the greatest burden which Mother India carries with herself is the state of Bihar. I must admit here what people have an opinion of Bihar is quite justified in its own way and it hurts me a lot.

Image: Rajgir, Bihar

Bihar has always been a culturally rich region and that has sustained through the time. Most of the people have a stereotypical thinking of Bihar and Bihari people. They assume people of Bihar to be ill mannered and uncultured and this is because they have never been to Bihar and have never seen its real culture. But of late this stereotypical behaviour towards Biharis has decreased a lot because Biharis have shown their mettle almost in every field of work. People of Bihar can be easily seen on powerful bureaucratic posts as Bihar has produced numerous bureaucrats. Biharis have excelled in various fields but due to lack of opportunities in Bihar many successful ones are now settled in various parts of the country as well as abroad. This has happened despite being daunted by the stereotypical societal practices. Potential of a Bihari can't be questioned as they know how to change poverty into progress.

The above mentioned detailed feature relates to the people of Bihar, their culture and potential. But when we talk of geographical region and topography Bihar couldn't say much to defend itself. This is what most of the people think even the Biharis themselves. I'd like to clear this myth as well.

When we talk about ancient Indian history, all the mighty names which come up are born on the soil of Bihar and are nurtured by the water of the Ganges. To name some- Bimbhisara, Gautama Buddha, Mahavir Jain, Ajatshatru, Chandra Gupta Maurya, Ashoka, Samudra Gupta and many revolutionary personalities were the foundation stones of the significant legacy of Bihar. It remained the governing factor of the Indian-subcontinent for more than a thousand years until 647AD when Harsha moved his capital to Kannauj. Till this period Bihar was the most flourishing territory in the North, various rulers fought to acquire the fertile lands of Bihar and this continued throughout the mediaeval Indian history. Bihar started to perish at the advent of the Britishers and modern era. They exploited the land of Bihar in order to complete their increased revenue targets. They unprecedentedly grew Indigo on the lands of Bihar leaving the farming lands completely barren after one reap.. But the situation worsened when Bihar was partitioned from Bengal by the Britishers in 1912. This marked the real beginning of Bihar's deterioration. Anyhow after the independence of India in 1947 the state of Bihar tried to establish itself and regain its lost valour but it did not become successful in doing so. Bihar has seen several ups and downs, leaving it with nothing except for a strong hope towards development.

The present Bihar or the Bihar that we know of has massive faults, but despite the flaws it is naturally beautiful. I can definitely say that it is still unexplored. The real beauty of Bihar is pristine and truly mesmerizing, the only problem is that it is still inaccessible.

Bihar has a place called Rajagriha, which was the first capital of the Magadha dynasty of India. It is naturally fortified with mountains and is now called Rajgir. This place has the great scenic view. As we know Bihar is the place where Lord Buddha attained his enlightenment hence Bihar has one of the oldest Buddhist temple - The Mahabodhi Temple. Near that temple lies the famous Bodhi tree where Buddha attained enlightenment. Furthermore there is one hidden place located in Kaimur district of Rohtas which was discovered by the locals in 2015. It is known as the Shergarh Fort. So a question must arise, why wasn't it discovered earlier? It's because it isn't just a fort, rather an underground fort built at a height of 1200ft inside a hill. It is surrounded by the beautiful Durgavati River on all sides. When you will see the natural landscape from the roof of that fort, it looks like a heavenly paradise which will leave you spellbound. It was built by the mighty Afghan ruler Sher Shah Suri in 1540. Sher Shah added a lot to Bihar's development by building various sarais and beautiful buildings. Bihar is also the site of the UNESCO's World Heritage site "The Ancient University of Nalanda" which was destroyed completely by Bhakhtiyar Khalji. According to a Chinese scholar Hiuen Tsang there were more than one million books kept in that University when it was functional centuries ago. This was indeed a great loss to world's history.

Bihar has always been a place of wonders and it continues to be so. People just need to change their perspective towards Bihar and break their self created stereotypical boundaries. The history and the cultural legacy of Bihar is completely indescribable. Varied problems have hindered its development for ages. Otherwise Bihar could've been much better than what it is now.

Bringing my thoughts and my feelings to the end I'd just like to say-

“कुछ दिन तो गुज़ारो बिहार में।”

You definitely won't regret, because beauty lies in the eyes of beholders. This is my Bihar and I belong to this "Hidden Heavenliness".

India after 2019: A tale from “Democracy to Judicial-ocracy”

After the ‘historic’ win of the National Democratic Alliance (NDA) in the General Elections of 2019, with a total of 352 seats in the Lower House of the Country, a lot of developments have happened. Many laws were passed, many policies were changed, many development projects approved, many reforms initiated and what not. Changes and transitions have happened in political, educational, developmental, medical and defense fields too. But there is a specific ‘transition’ that has happened in the very functioning of our country and that is, the ‘democracy ruled’ India has transitioned into a ‘judiciary ruled’ India, and it is a problematic happening. In every country there is a procedure to make a law. India too has its own. It involves passing of a Bill in the Lok Sabha, followed by passing in the Rajya Sabha and finally signed by The President of India. For decades, there has been no set role of the judiciary in law making. But in recent laws post 2019 win, the judiciary has acquired a very active and somewhat unwanted role in the process of law-making.

A new step, unwanted and unnecessary, has been added to the process by ‘some people’ and that step is newly made laws being challenged in the courts of law. Now moving ahead are some prominent examples of this futile power being used. These were not ‘some’ bills that were going to be passed, these were actual laws already passed by the Parliament.

Starting with, The Triple Talaq Bill, passed in July, 2019 in the Rajya Sabha which aimed at safe-guarding Muslim women and giving them equal rights in a marriage. This Law was challenged by a Sunni Muslim Group (scholars and clerics) of Kerala in the Supreme Court. They termed the law ‘unconstitutional’. This was an unwanted move which did nothing but wasted the precious time of the court and mocked the “democratically’ elected Government. By the way, the case is still pending. Moving on, the National Investigation Agency or the NIA (Amendment) Bill and the Jammu and Kashmir Reorganization Bill, 2019. Both bills were passed by the Parliament and signed by the President. The NIA Bill aimed at increasing the powers of the Agency which was already being planned by the Manmohan Singh led-government in 2008. The J&K Reorganization Bill aimed at bifurcating the state into two Union Territories for better administration and governance. Both passed bills were challenged in the SC. While the plea on NIA (Amendment) Bill was accepted by the Supreme Court, the plea on J&K Reorganization Bill was rightfully rejected.

Lastly, the 'infamous' Citizenship Amendment Act 2019 and the Three Farm Laws 2020. Both the laws were challenged in the Supreme Court of the Country. And what followed after shook the country. Both the laws created havoc in the country and abroad. In the name of protests against CAA, the never ending Shaheen Bagh Sit-in Protest created a lot of problems in the Delhi NCR region. The whole country was in a state of unrest.

Followed by the violence in Jawaharlal Nehru University, Aligarh Muslim University and Jamia Milia Islamia University shook the country. These incidents brought great shame and humiliation for the country. But, for what? For a law passed by a 'Democratically elected government' whom the citizens of the country rightfully chose as their representatives. Now, the same unruly, violent protests are happening against the Three Farm Laws. Same violence, same disruption, same wastage of manpower and money, and above all Loss of Lives. The Republic Day 2021 Violence has done nothing but critically disrupted the country.

With the above things being said, I am not against any actual protest or the challenging of any law in the courts. But it should all be done in a peaceful and non-hurtful manner. People need to understand that supporting any violent and unlawful activity or protest will do no good for the country but will only serve a ground for power-hungry politicians to politicize the issue and cause unrest in the country. Protest in a peaceful manner, demand repeal of any law by the government but all in a non-violent manner without causing any problem to anybody. And if it still doesn't work out, well, then five years are not that long. Change the government, democratically.

The Filtered Reality

How often do we get scared to show our vulnerable side to the world? Every corner of the world is running after show off and how. The demi world is just full of filters. Every emotion, beauty, confrontation is almost hidden behind the filters.

How did we get so trapped in the trend of filters that we forgot what it feels like to show our trueness to the world? Why? What's scaring us? Our own thoughts? Or the filtered reality of the world?

Thanks to Social Media, all of us have become our own haters. Posting our most polished selves before the world and waiting for the hearts and the comments as a measure of our worth. It has become the obsession of digital affirmation as a motivation. The irony is, we know well enough that the real us are masked behind the filters.

We need to acknowledge that most of the things presented in front of us is a filtered reality. As we know, nobody is perfect then why do we still look for perfection in everyone and in everything? It's because the magnetic world of filters is snatching our peace of mind as well as our thoughts. So, let's appreciate the true beauty. Appreciate our raw pictures, our raw emotions, accept our entangled thoughts, accept our messed-up life. Because life is nothing but just an unfiltered reality.

Pandemic Crisis: Lessons for the Future

It seems that we all are survivors of an apocalypse just like in a science fiction story, but I think it is something more worse than that, where the international organisations like the WHO and many others are continuously banging posts on social media platforms telling people that situations are out of control.

It is a time for deep reflection and keen observation. Look around you and take a note as- the world transforms itself. Today we all feel ourselves surrounded by the walls made of unknowingly and unfortunate things, we never imagined that someday we have to remain shut behind the doors, not only for some hours or days, we have to be in there till the end of this situation. It feels like the nature is punishing the demons of the nature for their self-obsessed motives.

Powerful countries are now focusing on the number of graveyards they can provide to their people, instead of controlling the deaths. Corona has changed all, but thankfully the Sun and moon still rise, and Sirius shines reassuringly every night. Sometimes a steady drone from the sky distracts me and I look up to marvel at the sleek long body of a cargo plane, it is a rare enough sight. My mind strays to childhood when we would stop play to wondrously observe a plane in the sky. I thought of sitting in the corner most bench of the classroom, as I usually do, but at the same time my mind gets diverted to this pandemic situation and I assure myself that a day will definitely come when everything will be normal.

Right now the world is at an edge to spark a massive world war, it may be the third or the last world war. Many countries are gathering their nuts to destroy each other. I think there is an unexploded super powerful bomb lying in the playground and we people are throwing stones to pretend that we are saving the lives. We left nothing for our future generations. The only things that can be gifted to our upcoming generation are biohazard explosives, virtual and digital medicines and infinite number of hi-tech gadgets. We left nothing except of a world made of dust and ashes.

Today we all are pretending that we have a concern for the future by posting pictures and videos with heavy captions and hashtags but how many of us have really shown our ethics to the nature or the resources around us. We passed years and years, saying “Our Future is Dark...”, “Nature is dying...”, but how many of us have done something for the future. We failed to provide a better future to our upcoming generation.

The pandemic crisis has given us a lesson that we should be well equipped for any kind of worse circumstances. Situations become more severe when it is not tackled at the right time, if we followed the guidelines of the superior organisations, the deaths would not reach the massive number around the globe. We must commit together to build equitable and sustainable models for an optimistic future as we emerge from the crisis of COVID-19.

Youth

To find joy in work is to discover the foundation of youth”

~Pearl S. Buck

Youth of a nation are the building blocks of it, if the fundamental support of a building becomes weak the building couldn't stand for a long time so is with the country and its youth population. Youth are the basic source of human geography which helps in maintaining the balance over geographical polity as well as society of a country but it is seen that the strength and calibre of the present youth of our nation is considered in headed in the wrong direction. There is no utilisation of our youth strength/ population to its fullest. The capacity and passion of the present youth might have understood as an useless passion or career path for example if a student or youth is passionate about making his/ her career in politics and bringing a positive change or doing entrepreneurship or something else which is a on track work that our society demands it's not considered as a positive point by the society.

Not only the society it's also the government who doesn't take care for their youth population and get concerned for youth. According to the Government of India, Budget Department Report the allocation of budget to the Department of Sports was 90% and to the Youth Affairs was only 10% in 2009-2010 but it increased a bit to 63% for sports and 37% for youth affairs in 2016-17 which still is not much sufficient amount to be spent on the youth of our nation. India's youth is full of energy and talent sadly though many of them don't have the right motivation or direction they need guidance to reach there unrealise goals educated youth doesn't get a skillful work or employment opportunity as per their calibre or capacity this is also a major reason why various multinational companies attracted the youth energies and train them from our country to outer world .

Moreover the concept of FOMO (Fear Of Missing Out) is also increasing day by day, the youth are played with insecurities and it's not just about their job their way of life is challenged at every level and social media plays an important tool in doing so youth feels other are getting more fun and opportunities but they don't this increases the case of depression as well no doubt the very basic ingredient to make out youth population more efficient is education it is rightly said that can't neglect the strength of our youth population and need to give them right opportunity and right direction.

Unrealistic Beauty Standards

“Accepting yourself only as long as you look a certain way isn't self-love, it's self-destruction”. There is nothing rarer, nor more beautiful than a person being unapologetically themselves, comfortable in their perfect imperfection. The true essence of beauty lies in the eyes of the beholder and one own self.

Much has been made over the years about how mainstream media presents unrealistic beauty standards in the form of photoshopped celebrities or stick thin fashion models. Now that influencers fill up our feeds, it is easy to imagine that social media, too, is all filthy when it comes to body image.

There is no doubt that more and more people are coming forward, be in person or on social media, protesting against these issues but fatality of such torturous events still dominates them. Not only women but people in general are subjected to think in a certain way, look in a certain way that harms their mental health and foster their insecurities. They fail to realize the fact that celebrities go through tonnes of procedures to look that way which seriously affect their body in humongous ways sometimes. They do certain crash diets, deprive their body of essential nutrients to look a certain way. It is high time we think about ourselves and prioritize our mental and physical health. We need to understand the difference between perception and reality.

yourself. Society doesn't define your beauty.

Changes in Trends of International Business, Foreign Trade in Goods and Services

World trade or international trade, is the exchange of capital, goods, and services across international borders, which might include the actions of the government and private individuals. Trading globally gives patrons, and countries the occasion to be exposed to new markets and product. This trading practiced beyond the national boundaries, in international markets are affected with changes in trends in world trade in goods and services as it affects the external environment in which business is being conducted by government and private players. Here we will be discussing about the recent trends in world trade in goods and services and the way businesses are being conducted internationally.

In the last year, the pandemic enveloped the whole world shaking the economies of even world leaders. On one hand, people were losing their lives and on the other hand businesses were atrociously hit by the coronavirus's malign affects. The number of exports and imports all over the world was drastically changed. Countries found that they are required to be self-sufficient and there by promoted to for vocal for local, instead of being dependent for their goods on other countries. This affected international business's demand heavily. However, for necessary goods like medicines, PPE kits etc. there is need for an improved geo-political relations and more open trade.

When the whole world went under lockdown companies introduced an unorthodox way of tackling this issue by starting making its employees, work from home. This proved to be very efficient, reducing their variable costs of rent, travelling allowances etc. Although now the process of unlock has begun, companies are now not calling its employees at office and are still allowing them to work from home and is able to shoot two points with one arrow. One they are able to reduce their costs and second, they are able to effectively utilize their resources. Further they are also able to hire people from other states, countries as the virtual world doesn't have any physical boundaries. This changed the way how businesses are being conducted. Businesses are now being conducted virtually. E-commerce also got a major boost along with various startups who provided the world with the need of the hour. Platforms where business meetings could be conducted were made possible by apps like Google Meet, Zoom etc. Thus, we can say there are advancements in communications, logistics and supply chain technologies. This increased the ability to maximize a company's global potential.

The past one hundred years have been a truly amazing time for international trade. The combination of transportation, technological, geo-political and other advances have made it more practical and efficient than ever before to conduct international business. Hopefully this trend will continue and the world will see even greater advances in the exciting field of international trade.

Atrocities on Girls

Why “Save Girl Child” remains just a slogan? Why Girls are considered a curse and boys, the pride of the family? Our patriarchal society has overcome many problems but still there is a long way ahead.

In most countries in the world, there are approximately 105 male births for every 100 females but in India, there are less than 93 women for every 100 men in the population. It is also estimated that 4,60,000 girls went missing at birth in India between 2013 - 2017. This is because of several reasons like female infanticide and sex selective absorption, emotional, sexual and physical abuse etc. The United Nations states that an estimated 2000 unborn girls are illegally aborted every day in India. 1.5 million female fetuses are aborted every year and about 142 million girls went globally missing. India ranks no 4 with a ratio of 112 males/100 females.

Killing girls is still considered to be a wiser course than raising them. What can be done to lower these alarming rates? Few suggestions can be- first, home visitation programs to prevent child maltreatment. Second, parent education to prevent maltreatment and improving maternal mental health and third, tougher laws and legislations for crime against women.

Each one of us has our own identity and everybody deserves to be respected and treated with love. Let's make equality a tradition and respect our culture.

Artificial Intelligence: Wonders and Vulnerabilities

Isn't that sound interesting when Alexa plays our favourite song or Netflix recommend us movies which we really like to watch. In this era of jaw-breaking technologies, Artificial Intelligence or AI is the one that excites us the most. It is surreal when I look deep into the field of artificial intelligence and its capabilities. For those who are not much familiar with artificial intelligence, it is the simulation or replication of human intelligence in machines which can make those machines think like humans and can even solve problems on their own. Sounds amazing, isn't it?.

AI opens door to a much more sophisticated piece of technologies like machine learning, neural networks, and deep learning. These words sound a little bit techy and mysterious and many of you will be wondering why should we care about these? If you are super-optimistic then you might be thinking about the wonderful things which can be done by these technologies like automation of various repetitive tasks or helping the traffic police to figure out the rash rider on the road or maybe playing with your Alexa. These things are literally very amazing and I too admit this amazingness is a gift. But, at some point when I peep through its capabilities, I see this gift is turning to a nightmare for many people and the saddest part is that most of them aren't aware.

If we look back into the history and the evolution of technologies we find one common thing behind every technology. And it is fairly simple, just solving problems and making our life easier. From the invention of the wheel to the bullet train the theme was always the same behind their inventions. But, can you imagine a place where almost everything is automated from farming to food - delivery. It somehow reminds me of the movie "Wall-E" which is satirical but more concerning. Before 2012 all the e-commerce platforms like eBay, Amazon, or the Indian e-Commerce platform Flipkart used to operate manually all their tasks in their warehouse. But after the invention of automated robots especially curated for e-commerce needs like sorting products according to the orders and nearest logistic partners all on their own without any human interaction. This made a huge difference in the smoothness of the process. Before these robots, workers had to manually pick each product, sort them as per the orders, and the location for shipping and delivery. Now that sounds interesting because it has solved one of the great problems by reducing human involvement in the process, however, in the same place it has eaten up the job of all those workers who used to sort the products before. But wait robots are not that much available and affordable to everyone, isn't it? But if we look back in 2010 we haven't even imagined the technologies we are seeing now. So, if we view the growth, then near to 2025 most of the e-commerce platforms and their works will be automated. Similarly, drone delivery is also solving the delivery problem but in the same place, it is eating up the job of the delivery boy/girl.

This is just one industry I am pointing out. There are many more. For instance, a new text-generation technology by Open AI called GPT-3 which can generate essays, articles, and other similar contents just in seconds with very basic instructions. But that doesn't make us amaze because we know that the computer cannot generate text as we humans do. But that's a lie. About 88 % of people were not able to figure out the text generated by GPT-3 and misunderstood it as human written content. Here it also solves a big problem but in the same place, it can somehow reduce the need for a content writer.

AI will bring the biggest reform in the history of the world.

Private Coaching: A Booming Business Industry

In this competitive world private coaching has become the need of the hour .National level exams such as CA, JEE, NEET have created a huge market for these institutions . Coaching institutes operate on a large scale , preparing students for various exams .The coaching classes and their schedule keeps a student determined and disciplined all the time giving a taste of the competition that the student is going to face . Students are guided to follow the proper path and strategy which boosts their confidence and focus .The Indian society has created a lot of hype regarding these examinations .Today parents are forced to believe that not scoring good marks in these exams could potentially destroy their child's future.

When I hear the term “business” the first thing that comes to my mind is coaching .The private coaching industry is bigger than $ 40 billion. This is about the state GDP of Odisha. Private centres these days only focus on marketing strategies such as advertisements and scholarships to allure students to enrol in their courses. 90%students serve as bank to these centres whereas only 1% students procure the top ranks. These 1% students act as the influencing fuel for these centres . The mindset of coaching centres is money oriented to a great extent. Posters with huge photos of the toppers and fake100% success guarantees are used a tool to attract the mass .

Education ,these days is commission not a mission. Education is the basis of any civilization but so are the skills .The rigorous schedule of these classes drains out the students and deteriorates their social life and kills their desire to inculcate new skills. Practical knowledge is a far cry in these institutes .Students are not able to devote proper time to self studies which in the long run leads to frustration and depression . Students thus are so busy , that they don't give any importance to their health ,mental and physical fitness. Quality is not something these centres lay stress on . The toppers of the institute are given utmost priority and importance ,the average student is left behind with pressure and self doubt encircling his mind.

To excel in this competitive practical and social world students need to have a broad perspective in all fields. They should be given proper guidance and good quality education. Coaching centres need to change their curriculums and focus more on quality rather than quantity.

Sometime Something

Sometimes you fail,
Sometimes you fall,
Its life man...
You never get all.

Sometimes you are wrong,
Sometimes you are right,
Its life man...
Embrace every plight.

Sometimes you have everything,
Sometimes everything gone
wrong,
Its life man...
Having its own way of dusk and dawn.

Sometimes you made some mistakes,
Sometimes you remit other ones,
Its life man...
Try always be loyal to your trust ones.

Sometimes you hurt
mistakenly,
Sometimes you heart for a purpose,
Its life man...
You can also call it as a mind and heart circus.
At the last
It's your life man...
You have to face sometimes
some things,
Smile and kick it as it was a joke

Who I Am?

Sometimes I am a slave of my own thoughts, sometimes I am a wanderer free from the shackles of my thoughts.

Sometimes I am full of life and sometimes I can't even move out of bed.

Sometimes I question myself and sometimes I give a pat on my back.

Am I enough? Am I strong? Am
I worthy?

Yes.

I am a free bird flying high above the sky where there is no limit to my dreams.

I am the clear sky with no boundaries to my potential.

I am a learner who is not afraid to make mistakes.

I am who I am.

Being Quiet

I want to scream out loud,
And tell everyone how wrong
they are but I prefer,
Being quiet.

I want to tell those politicians
on television,
Who keep showcasing their development and contribution, That Hitler did better in dictatorship rather than you being in democracy but I prefer,
Being quiet.

I want to tell my friends and family what I am going through mentally,
I want to share every detail of my life but I prefer,
Being quiet.

I want to tell my love,
That what your every effort matters your every time given to me precious,
But I purposely don't tell how happy I am with you because you will change like everyone
I want to tell from bottom of my heart how precious you are but I prefer
Being quiet.

I want to tell my parents,
About every hushed effort I make for them,

Every single decision I take to make them proud but I prefer,
Being quiet

I want to tell my friends,
Why they mean so much to me,
And every effort they make to be in touch with me,
Even I was pushing them away
but I prefer,
Being quiet.

Why am I so being this?
Is that because my words seem like words to them?
To politicians they are in power after all.

Is it because I'm scared to talk about what I'm going through or is it the society which makes me to act strong?

Is it because she has gone through a lot in her past all the words seem like pacifier to her?

Maybe because my parents don't want me where I am right now? Maybe I know my efforts won't make them happy.

Knowing everything is a curse you want to scream loud to the world and say how everybody is but in the end it's just an what you predicted outcome and, in the end, I prefer being quiet.

A Lady

It's always the lady's fault
Just because she's a lady,
She can't talk back,
Because her ladyship has no right,
Her decisions are not counted,
Cos ladyship has no identity,

When she gave birth to him,
She could've taken his right to live,
His life has always been in her hands,
But every time she chooses
love and kindness,
Now her choice brought her pain,
Humiliation and dehumanized,
Just because she's a lady

awake,
Her hands are wet, body is shivering, Washing utensils, stains aren't going,
Tears has dried, its midnight
she's not tired.

She tries her best, to make him
rest,
He, anguished and sad,
Children have hurt their feelings again,
He sweat day and night, to make their future bright,
He has built mansion but a happy him is now an illusion.

In the lonely house, lives she

Both are now self-reliant, sustaining each other,
Sleeping building and a tranquil lake,
In the cold winter night, she is

We All Exist

From roaming here and there to sit down and think,
From diving into oceans of thoughts to be amused by the process of it,
From picking the title to write to actually reach down to it,
From being honest while writing to forget of what honesty really is,
We choose something else over what it actually is.

Opening eyes for the first time to the never-ending sleep,
We all grow up it's a life indeed.
We all are same till we are 13,
We all are kids unless we're distinguished by him.
When you are forced to behave,
I'm forced to earn a bread for family,
And if I don't, respect doesn't come to me.
When you are facing society for raising a question,
I'm facing it for being emotional even a little.
You can cry if you have painful
monthly cramps,
I can't even cry for giving up on my dreams.
You ask for equality? Tell me!

Why am I only supposed to pay bills for a meal?

Why am I only supposed to pick you up for a trip?

Why am I only supposed to fight for you?

Why am I only supposed to text you first?

Have you been ever bullied for not fighting back?

And when I try to carry out my duty of being gentleman,

Why do they call me
henpecked?

Why can't I cry and scream like a child?

Why don't I get respect when I earn less?

Can we stop here?

As a human we all go through something, we all face it.

Why don't we seek for humanity instead of today's so-called "equality"?

It's a life indeed we all exist.

School Days Are Missed

Ending a journey of fourteen years in schools,
Came hundreds of students to a place with no rules, Leaving old friends and
memories in a dome, Came all of us so far from our home.

The first day felt as the longest day,
But all of us knew there was no
other way,
In some time only new friends
were made,
But the memories of school refused to fade.

Bunking a period in school was big,
Bunk a whole day now, there's no one to dig,
Carrying a mobile to school was so cool,
Now it's just a daily used tool.
Heavy school bags were cursed

by all,
Now, with just a few books the entire day would fall.
A tiffin and a water bottle were carried by all,
Now with a soft drink and a patty, the Lunch was all.
wish

The evenings that were earlier spent with cricket and football,
Were now being spent in the Common Hall.

School days were fun and nothing did they lack,
Now I wish there was a way, for them to be back.

Good Bye Friend

Togetherness is our strength,
Our bond is our power,
Alone you are just a petal, my friend,
Together we become a flower.

How can we part?
How do we meet again?
Tomorrow is hard to bear,
But its relieving to hear,
That we will always be there.

You correct my mistakes,
Whenever I am in need,
You are not just a friend,
But a brother indeed.

I know I lost many,
But you are not from that any,
May we again meet one day,
Before we passed our last day.

We All Are One

We all are one,
No matter how much you hate anyone.

We all are born on the same land,
And India is our Motherland.

We all have same identity,
And being Indian brings us unity.

We all are one by nation,
But why we fight coming to our religion?

We all are same,
But I don't understand why we support one's fame.

We all are same,
During fights we support the unseen games.

We all should find a solution,
And not become a reason of separation.

We all should spread love,
Leaving all the tensions above.

We all must trust our Almighty
God,
And he will help us create a better bond.

My life is like a mess,
Everyday there is a checkmate,
It seems like a chess,
I have so many things to

But my words are limited,
My heart is induced with

And I am not allowed to

I am all yours,
You are all mine,
