FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

DEAR STUDENTS,

In welcoming you, I bring with me 50 years of celebrated history of this institution, the exemplary heritage of the University of Delhi and the spirit of our beloved nation. In these years, our college has established itself as a reputed institution imparting education in Humanities, Commerce and Social Sciences.

In tune with our motto "Rashtra Devo Bhava" we, at SBSEC, inculcate in our students the value of seeking greater well-being of the society and the nation. This motto which is the driving force of the college inspires us to endeavour for the overall development of the students who could after getting a holistic education become able and aware citizens, capable of giving their valuable contribution in nation building and are ready to be the torch bearers of the society.

The wellness of the society lies in the material and spiritual progress of the individuals. We strive to bridge the ever-widening gap between moral progress and material advancements. This is essential to make this world a better place for the present and the generations to come and for this we provide a nourishing environment where students come from different parts of India and share their culture and create a common understanding leading to a feeling of similarity and oneness which is the core value of our nation i.e. unity in diversity. The purpose of Education is also the growth of consciousness, ability to look inward and seek higher levels of inquiry. We aspire to take teaching-learning in the direction in which students get to explore the full potential of their moral, ethical, cultural and spiritual consciousness. This will not only help them earn a living but also make the living successful. The students are at the centre of a vibrant and vivacious college life. The curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities are designed in such a way that the talent and exceptionality of each and every student develops to its full potential. We have a number of literary, cultural, sports committees and societies to enhance and explore their interests. Further to meet the needs of our students the college caters a well-stocked library comprising of more than 50,000 books in different disciplines.

The greatest strength of any institution is its people and at SBSEC we have competent and dedicated faculty members who are always willing to engage with the students, mentor them and prepare them to become well-rounded individuals ready to take challenges in their respective fields. We have equally capable and compassionate administrative staff who always work as a team to make the college life a smooth experience for our students. We believe that students and teachers together have the potential to shape and create a better society and we have a symbiotic relation with our students for moving in this direction. I assure you that after joining the college, each one of you will become an inseparable part of exuberant teaching-learning spirit of the institution, enriching it and getting enriched in the process.

With best wishes,

Prof. Arun Kumar Attree

Principal (Additional Charge)

THE COLLEGE

Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College was established in the month of July 1973 by the Administration of Delhi, named after one of the greatest freedom fighters 'Shaheed-E-Azam' Bhagat Singh. It is one of the prestigious colleges of University of Delhi, India. In initial days, this college catered to the needs of those who were employed and wanted to enhance their educational qualification and career prospects. Changing dynamics in the education and increasing prospects of higher education led to reform in our basic idea of imparting education in a restricted manner and opening the venture for all sections of society. The college is now open to all students for undergraduate courses. Over the years the College has seen remarkable growth in terms of facilities, infrastructure, curricular and extracurricular activities. It offers undergraduate courses in Humanities, Social Sciences and Commerce. It has an accomplished faculty of about 105 members and about 3000 students. The College also has efficient and supportive administrative/non-teaching staff.

The College also has a rich collection of books and journals in its library, the NSS and NCC Rooms, etc. The college also offers the facilities of a seminar room, bank, computer room, girls' common room, first aid, photocopier, etc. Apart from this, the college has many societies to cater students' interest and career prospects, ranging from dramatics, music and photography to economics, commerce association and capacity building cell. In this era of multilateralism and globalisation, we have not confined ourselves to classroom learning only but we believe in all-round development of skills through practical knowledge, preparing students to increase their mental ability and critical thinking to make them realise their potential and grab the opportunities in the changing global scenario.

We are committed to develop a vibrant, equitable and truly inclusive environment in which our student can understand their social responsibility and can be culturally awakened so they can be the torchbearer of change not only in their life but also for the society and nation.

Due to Covid-19 crises, classes went online. Students and teachers were easily able to conduct classes online via Google Meet and Google Classrooms. Many online events and international webinars were also conducted online. The college started in offline mode from 17th February 2022, with full precautions and safety, and again the students were able to return to the college campus.

The college has been accredited with 'A' Grade with a score of 3.36 by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Government of India in 2017 for 5 years. The college was ranked 34 in All India Ranking of Colleges by the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF), 2017 rankings by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India.

VISION:

The vision of our college is ingrained in its Logo 'Rashtra Devo Bhava'. The logo exemplifies the values cherished by the great son of India, Shaheed-e-Aazam Bhagat Singh i.e., service to the nation comes first.

MISSION:

To create an effective teaching-learning environment that enables the students to realise their full potential.

To develop the College as a catalyst of change and growth to prepare students to think critically and act responsibly in a rapidly changing global environment.

To inculcate among the college community, a sense of environmental responsibility to adopt environment-friendly practices as a way of life.

To foster equitable education for all strata of society, create effective student-teacher mechanisms, and adopt the methods and mode of education that can help us to achieve the Sustainable Development Goal- SDG (4) of the United Nations.

FACETS OF THE COLLEGE

ORIENTATION DAY The orientation of the new batch for the academic year 2023-24, enrolled under NEP for the first time in SBSEC, University of Delhi, was held on 7th November 2022. It is held every year as soon as the admission process ends, in order to inform the students about the teaching learning system of the college and encourage students towards an all-round development by providing them opportunities in extracurricular activities. On this day, Professor SK Sinha, the former Principal of the college welcomed both parents and students to the college. Prof C S Dubey, Secretary, Staff Council spoke to the new batch of students to familiarise them to the environs of college. Thereafter, the students were briefed about the newly introduced courses like Value Addition Courses (VAC), Skill Enhancement Courses (SEC) and Ability Enhancement Courses (AEC) along with the structure and division of credits in each paper. They were apprised in detail about the National Education Policy (NEP). This was followed by a series of introductions and explanations, lucidly given by the Teachers-In-Charge (TICs) and Conveners of respective departments, courses, committees and societies. Towards the end, all the students dispersed to attend their course-specific orientation sessions for further details of their courses.

ORIENTATION DAY

SHAHEEDI DIWAS

Following the tradition of the college since its inception, the college organised the Shaheed Bhagat Singh Memorial Lecture on 23rd March 2023, as a tribute to the martyrdom of Shaheed Bhagat Singh and his comrades. The event started with an introduction about the significance of the day and the lecture. It was followed by encouraging words by the principal of the college. The Chief Guest for the occasion was Shree Prafulla Ketkar, an eminent writer and thinker, and the editor of 'Organizer'.

The speaker spoke at length about the ideas, efforts and deeds of Bhagat Singh. He evoked a sense of vigour in students by giving a new dimension to the general understanding of Bhagat Singh's thoughts. He pointed out how the youth can take a leaf out of his book and work with the thought of diversity in unity, as an alternative to 'unity in diversity'. At the end of the event, Prof O S Deol proposed the vote of thanks.

The college organised a one-day 'Sports Fest 2K23' on 24th April 2023. It saw massive participation of students as well as the teaching and non-teaching staff. It included various competitions like the long jump, 100m Race, 200m Race, Mix-Relay Race, Volleyball and Tug-of-war(s). The competitions were held in three phases, trials, semi-finals and finals. Olympic swimmer Shivani Kataria was the Chief Guest of the event and distributed prizes to the winners at the end. Shivani Kataria competes in the women's 200m freestyle. She represented India at 2016 Summer Olympics. She has also won many medals at South Asian Games and Asian Age Group Championship.

SPORTS DAY

AZADI KA AMRIT MAHOTSAV

Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College is celebrating 75 years of India's Independence - "Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav". It is pursuant to the notifications issued by the Ministry of Education and Ministry of Information and Broadcasting dated 5th March and 24th March 2021. It is an initiative of the Government of India to celebrate and commemorate 75 years of freedom of progressive India and the glorious history of its people, culture and achievements. The celebrations which commenced 75 weeks prior to the Independence Day 2022 would extend up to 15th August 2023. In this regard, a committee has been formed, which has organised a series of events including seminars, webinars, essay writing competitions, poetry/story/slogan writing competitions, poster making, rallies, photography competition etc. Nodal Officer - Sh Sarad Yadav

The college successfully completed its 50 years in the year 2022, since its inception in 1967. Despite ups and downs, the college stood firm as a fraternity and continues to excel in imparting education and opportunities to students who come to University of Delhi in search of a direction. To mark this milestone, the college celebrated its golden jubilee at Dr BR Ambedkar International Research Centre on 16th July 2022.

The chief guest of the occasion was Prof Yogesh Singh, Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi. Guests of Honour were Dean of Colleges, Prof Balram Pani and Prof Shri Prakash Singh, Director, South Campus, University of Delhi. On this event, the college inaugurated and unveiled its coffee table book containing pictures of important moments in the history of the college. Through a presentation the audience were shown nostalgic and beautiful glimpses of achievements and other great moments lived by teachers and students alike by being part of the college. Thereafter, the governing body chairman, Shri Feroz Khan, delivered an address. It was followed by an address by the then Principal, Prof Sudhir Kumar Sinha, and an address by convener of the event, Prof C S Dubey. The guests of honour also spoke on the occasion. The chief guest then delivered a mind opening, crisp and educating address to promote a healthy notion of education among teachers and students with an idea of sincere work ethics, which requires whole-hearted honest involvement of everyone. The event then proceeded with cultural presentations. Malhar, the music society, and Innoverz, the dance society gave spectacular performances. Sangharsh, the dramatics society performed a play on Bhagat Singh, to pay tribute to him and remember the ideals that he had propagated as the freedom fighter of this country. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof SK Grover, following which everybody dispersed for a grand dinner.

In continuation of the DU Centenary and the college Golden Jubilee celebrations, a Qawali night by Niazi Nizami Brothers, was organised in the college premises. Their performance enthralled the audience including both students and teachers.

GOLDEN JUBILEE CELEBRATION

ANNUAL DAY

On May 3rd, 2023, the college celebrated its 51st Annual Day and Prize Distribution Function with great enthusiasm. The principal of the college presented the annual report for the academic year 2022-23 and apprised the college fraternity of the activities and the ongoing developments of the college. The chief guest of the event was Prof Sanjay Dwivedi, Director General of the Indian Institute of Mass Communication, and former Vice Chancellor of Makhanlal University of Journalism. Other dignitaries on the occasion included Shri Feroz Khan, Chairman of the College Governing Body, and Sh. Nageshwar Prasad from DD news. After the inspirational speeches by the guests, the prize distribution ceremony was held to felicitate all the student achievers. The function was a memorable occasion that recognised student achievements and inspired us all to contribute positively to society.

DEPARTMENTS

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

The Department of Commerce of our college has been striving for creating a stimulating academic environment for its students. It offers two courses B.Com (Hons.) and B.Com of the University of Delhi, that are designed to enable and empower students to acquire knowledge, skills and abilities to analyse and synthesise the contemporary realities pertaining to the domain of business.

Commerce is the biggest department of the college and the strength of the department lies in its highly qualified and experienced faculty that impart knowledge in various subjects not just restricted to the syllabi but also the practical aspects of various fields relating to accounting, finance, taxation, law, stock markets, etc. The department organises many events and extra-curricular activities that enable students to improve their knowledge.

Under Teacher In-charge, Mr Vinod J Kaul, Associate Professor, VARICO hosted its annual fest, UNNATI 2023 on 27th April 2023. The department witnessed enthusiastic participation from various colleges, with events such as debates, corporate mimicry, and waste management. A special lecture on India's economy by Dr R. Ramachandran offered valuable insights, followed by interactive sessions with the students. Further Prof Ashish Chandra, the chief guest, motivated students and distributed prizes during the felicitation ceremony.

The department organised a series of other engaging events as well in the academic year 2022-23. These events showcased the department's commitment to holistic development and provided valuable experiences for the students. National Youth Day was celebrated to honour Swami Vivekananda's contributions, with sports activities organised under the event "Khelo SBSEC'ians." The department also observed Voter's Day to promote voter education and registration among students. Fresher's Day featured dance performances and career guidance from an esteemed alumnus in the fashion industry.

These events collectively contributed to a vibrant and enriching academic atmosphere within the Department of Commerce.

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

The Department of Economics has a receptive approach to learning. Faculty members believe in 'Learning while Doing' and walk hand-in-hand with students on the path to multifaceted growth. The department caters to all the Economics related subjects of various courses like B.Com (Hons), B.Com and BA Prog., among others.

Through the Economics Society, the department regularly hosts conferences, symposiums, and workshops to ensure informative and engaging sessions for both students and faculty members. On September 30, 2022, the department organised a guest lecture titled "Commercialisation, Diversification, and Structural Determinants of Farmer Income in India." The guest speaker for this event was Dr. Varun Kumar Das, an Assistant Professor at Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi.

Furthermore, on March 28, 2023, the department held its Annual Fest called EcoBuzz (Inter College). The event attracted students from various renowned colleges of Delhi University. The primary objective of this festival was to provide undergraduate students with an opportunity to participate in a wide range of activities related to economics, business, politics, and perceptions, along with ample entertainment. The festival aimed to bring students together on a common platform where they could showcase their knowledge and skills in the field of Economics.

These initiatives were implemented with the goal of making the subject of Economics more engaging and captivating for students while also providing them with a platform to exhibit their talents and understanding.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

The Department of English is a protean close-knit group of learned, accomplished and sincere faculty members, incessantly striving to enrich the academic experience within the college. The Literary Society of college, Carpe Diem, which is handled by the energetic and creative young minds of the college, is rooted in this department. Therefore, the students and teachers work in conjunction to organise a wide array of events like seminars, workshops, competitions etc., with the intention to invite, engage and inform students for a holistic cultivation of their experience and personality. The department under the in-charge ship of Prof C S Dubey recorded a fruitful year of academic activities.

On 27th Sept. 2022 Carpe diem conducted a successful seminar session on the theme of "Indian Knowledge Systems: The Textual Tradition". A sure shot theme to be discussed upon, the discussion was headed by the chief guest and keynote speaker, Prof Dhananjay Singh, Chairperson of Centre for English studies and Associate Dean of School of Language, Literature and Culture Studies in Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi. On 30th January 2023, Carpe Diem conducted a seminar on the topic "Finding Voices" in which Ms Dyuti Mittal, a renowned artist, illustrator and graphic novelist, spoke at length about the process of becoming an artist through her personal lens of experience. The event was also graced by Principal Prof Arun Kumar Attree and turned out to be a success. The society's newsletter is another project that is underway, for everyone to share untold stories and ideas.

AREOPAGITICA- The Creative Writing Society (Hindi and English) also works with the Department of English. The society aims to serve the best to its members by way of furnishing them with opportunities that enable them to view numerous creative aspects. The society reappeared after quite a while (straight after 2019) and the members worked really hard to successfully embark on this journey. A day out was planned to Sunder Nursery with a view to pen down in the arms of nature.

DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY

The Department of Geography consistently ranks high among the leading universities of Delhi, with good number of students passing with top ranks in the university every year. The department has well equipped laboratory with Computers, wi-fi projector system, Remote Sensing and GIS software, Satellite Imageries, Aerial Photographs, GPS, Toposheets, Pocket Stereoscope, Scanner and cartography threshing table where students carry out manual cartography work. They also have instruments and trekking equipment for the faculties and students for field trips.

During the 2022-2023 academic year, the Department of Geography achieved notable milestones. An Orientation program and Freshers' welcome were organized for new students. A Student Association was formed to maintain departmental unity and functionality. The department marked "World Environment Day" on 5th June with a sapling plantation drive within the college premises. This event also included activities such as presentations, documentary screenings, success stories, and a pledge for environmental conservation taken by both students and faculty members.

The department arranged four educational trips focusing on "Field Work and Research Methodology" and "Disaster Management" to destinations including Madurai, Rameswaram, Kanyakumari (Tamil Nadu), Tehri (Uttarakhand), Palla Gaon (Delhi NCR), Ernakulam, and Thiruvananthapuram (Kerala). These trips involved the participation of a collective group of 201 students (second and third year), 10 faculties, and 1 supporting staff member.

To foster research at the undergraduate level, the department conducted five innovation projects in collaboration with the IQAC (Internal Quality Assurance Cell). These projects were accompanied by corresponding workshops. Additionally, two seminars were organised, addressing the topics of Himalayan conservation and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

In December, the department organised a get-together for alumni of the department to bid farewell to Prof. S. K. Sinha, who retired after serving the department for over three decades. As part of "Shristi" (Annual Fest) celebrations, Prof. Anindita Datta (HoD, Department of Geography, University of Delhi) delivered a lecture.

The department also published the 18th volume of its annual magazine, "Ankur," which is being published since 1996.

FACULTY

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

The Department of Political Science aims at enriching the educational environment through the participation of students by transcending beyond the syllabus and evolving a cross-disciplinary approach. The department helps the students to acquire conceptual knowledge ranging from authoritarian to democratic politics, public policy to foreign policy, and local governance to international relations. It also attempts to bridge the gap between theory and practice by conducting surveys and undertaking field trips. The department has energetic and bright faculties which consist of a healthy blend of the seasoned as well as the relatively younger associates. Their continued efforts to up-skill are exemplified through the plethora of conferences, workshops, and lectures organised, which include participation from eminent personalities. The department offers courses in Political Science at both B.A (Hons) and B.A. (Prog) levels. The Political Science Association, a student-led body of the department, works in close consultation with the faculty, in conducting several academic, and co-curricular activities.

Guided by the Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Naresh Kumar, the department conducted an orientation program on November 7, 2022, for the newly admitted students aimed to help students understand New Education Policy (NEP) and its implementation.

Following the department's democratic tradition, elections were held on November 29, 2022, within the college premises to form the Political Science Association. It has also newly formed Political Science Association (Academics), to organise academic programs of the department.

To welcome the new batch of students, a Fresher's party was organised on March 31, 2023. Moreover, on February 9, 2023, an induction program was conducted to orient the departmental team volunteers and ensure the smooth functioning of academic events.

On the occasion of Shaheedi Diwas, the department hosted an intra-college quiz competition centred around the theme of "Indian National Movement."

FACULTY

B.A. PROGRAMME

The B.A. Programme Association of the college has been formed to provide the students with a platform for literary, aesthetic and intellectual enrichment. It encourages them to explore a range of ideas, values and human expressions. It also helps them shape their interpersonal, organisational and communication skills, beyond the classroom through various activities throughout the year. Under the convenorship of Dr Naresh Kumar and the dynamic members of the association, it organised a plethora of events. Disha 1.0, a weekly guidance session, commenced with its inaugural session held online on January 10, 2023. Dr. Sajani K, Assistant Professor of Psychology at Sri Aurobindo College (Eve), University of Delhi, delivered a talk on "How to deal with existential crisis, peer pressure, fear, and insecurity". There was also a counselling session providing insights on preparation for MA in Geography, Political Science, and International Relations. This session was conducted with the support of esteemed alumni, Mr. Inderpal (MA student in Geography, JNU) and Mr Sijay Raj (MA student in International Relations, JMI).

A vibrant Freshers party was organised on January 31, 2023, in the college premises, with the theme, "Embracing Diversity: Celebrating our Culture," welcoming the new batch of students for the academic year 2022-23.

On February 13, 2023, a seminar titled "Anokhi Pahal" was organised, with Dr. Varun Gulati, Associate Professor at the Department of English, Delhi University, as the speaker. The seminar focused on the personality development of students with special needs. To guide aspiring UPSC candidates, a webinar was conducted on March 12, 2023, with Mr. Rashid Yasin, an author and faculty member at G S SCORE, who provided valuable insights and strategies for the effective preparation of UPSC exams.

The annual fest of the B.A. Programme Association, INDRADHANUSH 3.0, was celebrated on April 23, 2023. The theme for this year was 'compassion for nature'. The event saw a stimulating guidance session by major general A. K. Shukla, VSM (retd.) and Sudhanshu Kaushik, founder, Young India Foundation. Besides, it featured an interactive session with author Rachna Bisht, Rawat. Additionally, various competitions including group dance, singing, poetry recitation, and more added to the festive atmosphere.

STATUTES

INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL

In accordance with the guidelines of the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), our college has established an Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) to ensure the sustenance of post-accreditation quality measures. The IQAC plays a vital role in maintaining quality standards in teaching, learning, and evaluation, and it is deeply integrated into the institutional system. Accredited with Grade A (3.36) by NAAC in 2016, the college has demonstrated its commitment to continuous quality enhancement. As a part of the IQAC, the Research and Innovation Cell for Grant of Projects (RICGP) aims to promote and support interdisciplinary research among faculty and students. RICGP envisions fostering high-quality research and innovations that generate ideas, enhance the institution's brand, and gain recognition.

The mission of RICGP is to advance the research capabilities of our faculty members, striving for excellence in research across campus. Through institutional support, RICGP aims to cultivate values of research development, stewardship, and leadership among our faculty and students, thereby enhancing our institutional research capacity. In the past, under the guidance of the IQAC, the college's Innovation Research Projects had granted 12 interdisciplinary projects to faculty members and students.

ANTI RAGGING CELL

Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited within the premises of the College and any part of the Delhi University system as well as public transport. Any individual or collective act or practice of ragging constitutes gross indiscipline and shall be dealt with under Ordinance XV-C.

Ragging, for the purpose of this Ordinance, ordinarily means any act, conduct or practice by which the dominant power or status of senior student is brought to bear on students freshly enrolled or students who are in any way considered junior or inferior by other students and includes individual or collective acts or practices which involve:

- (i) physical assault or threat or use of physical force,
- (ii) Violate the status, dignity, and honour of students,
- (iii) Violate the status, dignity and honour of students belonging to scheduled castes and tribes,
- (iv) Expose students to ridicule and contempt and affect their self-esteem,
- (v) Entail verbal abuse and aggression, indecent gestures, and obscene behaviour.

In case, any student, who has obtained the degree of Delhi University, is found under this ordinance committing an act or practice of ragging, he/she may be subjected under ordinance XV 15 to appropriate action for the withdrawal of degrees conferred by the University.

To this Ordinance, abatement to ragging whether by way of any act, practice or incitement will also amount to ragging.

Suggestions from students are always welcome and will be given due attention. Anyone found guilty of ragging shall be subjected to the following punishment:

- Rustication from the College
- Suspension from the College or Classes for a limited period
- Fine with a public apology
- Withholding scholarships and other benefits
- Debarring from representation in college events
- Withholding results
- Handing over the case to Police if need be.

The students are required to submit an online undertaking as regards prohibition of ragging by visiting the following websites www.antiragging.in or www.amanmovement.org.

Suggestions from students are always welcome and will be given due attention.
