FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Students,

In welcoming you, I bring with me 50 years of celebrated history of this institution, the exemplary heritage of the University of Delhi and the spirit of our beloved nation. In these years, our college has established itself as a reputed institution imparting education in Humanities, Commerce and Social Sciences. In tune with our motto “Rashtra Devo Bhava” we, at SBSEC, inculcate in our students the value of seeking greater well-being of the society and the nation. This motto which is the driving force of the college inspires us to endeavor for the overall development of the students who could after getting a holistic education become able and aware citizens, capable of giving their valuable contribution in nation building and are ready to be the torch bearers of the society.

The wellness of the society lies in the material and spiritual progress of the individuals. We strive to bridge the ever-widening gap between moral progress and material advancements. This is essential to make this world a better place for the present and the generations to come and for this we provide a nourishing environment where students come from different parts of India and share their culture and create a common understanding leading to a feeling of similarity and oneness which is the core value of our nation i.e., unity in diversity. The purpose of Education is also the growth of consciousness, ability to look inward and seek higher levels of inquiry.

We aspire to take teaching-learning in the direction in which students get to explore the full potential of their moral, ethical, cultural and spiritual consciousness. This will not only help them earn a living but also make the living successful. The students are at the center of a vibrant and vivacious college life. The curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities are designed in such a way that the talent and exceptionality of each and every student develops to its full potential. We have a number of literary, cultural, sports committees and societies to enhance and explore their interests.

Further to meet the needs of our students the college caters a well-stocked library comprising of more than 50,000 books in different disciplines. The greatest strength of any institution is its people and at SBSEC we have competent and dedicated faculty members who are always willing to engage with the students, mentor them and prepare them to become well-rounded individuals ready to take challenges in their respective fields. We have equally capable and compassionate administrative staff who always work as a team to make the college life a smooth experience for our students. We believe that students and teachers together have the potential to shape and create a better society and we have a symbiotic relation with our students for moving in this direction. I assure you that after joining the college, each one of you will become an inseparable part of exuberant teaching-learning spirit of the institution, enriching it and getting enriched in the process.

With best wishes,

Dr Sudhir Kumar Sinha
Actg. Principal

Cultural and Fine Arts Societies

SANGHARSH - THE DRAMATICS SOCIETY

Sangharsh was rooted 9 years ago, which is a very short period to set roots in the Delhi University theatre circuit.

Sangharsh is a place of joy, dedication, learning and exploring one's talent. It's not a mere society, it's a place where students work together and bring out each other's talent by working in team spirit. For the members of Sangharsh, it is not only a society but a family away from family, home far away from home. This society has won many laurels for the college, from across the country and it regularly stages plays in and around Delhi.

SANGH KRITI- THE INTERCULTURAL SOCIETY

Sangh Kriti is the first intercultural society of the college. It was formed so that students from various cultural backgrounds can exchange their cultural orientation and become familiar with other ethnicities to create a sense of unity and foster in them a sense of nationalism. Under the guidance of the convenor Prof. CS Dubey, the society conducts various webinars and activities like cultural quizzes, debates around current economic and cultural trends and issues. It conducted a dance workshop by Ms. Sangita Chatterjee, a Kathak dancer, from 5th-7th March, 2021. It has social media presence where its members regularly post and share various travel and cultural stories. Recently, it launched its series SAFARNAMA on its Instagram page.

REFLECTION - THE PHOTOGRAPHY SOCIETY

Reflection-Photography society has been one of the most popular and competitive societies of the college. Under the guidance of prof. VS Negi, this society has continued to deliver regular workshops and webinars for the students. One of the most prestigious activities was the successful conduction of a photo walk-in at Safdarjung Tomb. It has collaborated with a lot of other DU societies and initiatives and has been successful in providing remarkable exposure to students.

MALHAR - THE MUSIC SOCIETY

The music society of the college is one of the most versatile societies with its different members being experts in playing varied musical instruments and the remarkable songsters who have the amazing skill of modulating their voices as per different songs. Each year, Malhar takes part in various competitions across DU and brings honor to the college both in the group as well as solo singing competitions. Besides this, Malhar also organizes its annual competition called Alankar and Saptrang. Society has also actively maintained its social media presence with fresh and striking content.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP CELL

Founded in 2018, the Student Entrepreneurship Cell of SBSEC is dedicated towards promoting the spirit of entrepreneurship among students. The aim of the cell is to encourage college students to start their own venture, establish and sustain an environment of entrepreneurship and to enrich the lives of different communities in need through our efforts. The society not only provides budding entrepreneurs with a platform to convert their dream into reality but also organizes activities and events within the college for its students bringing out their Entrepreneurial skills. The team worked under the guidance of Convenor Shri VJ Kaul and Co-Convenor Dr. Amrita Kaur and conducted various events such as: DU START-UP STORIES, Vocal for Local, Entrepreneurial Premiere League (EPL), webinar by Ms. Jasrita Dhir, Entrepreneurial Quiz, Orientation, webinar on "Empowered, Enabled and Equipped Youth" and Kaleidoscopic 2.0.

WOMEN DEVELOPMENT CELL

The Women Development Centre, SBSEC, convened by Dr. Kavita Yadav and co-convened by Dr. Shalu Suri and Ms. Manika Gupta believe in and stands and strives for the upliftment, emancipation, and empowerment of women and also the other marginalized and discriminated genders. It believes in achieving it by sensitizing the students about issues such as gender discrimination, misogyny, sexual harassment, abuse, personal space, consent and so on, by training the students to raise their voice and question the existing patriarchal order. It also forces them to self-evaluate, identify, and shed the inherent patriarchy and misogyny which exist within them due to social conditioning. During this ongoing pandemic the students of WDC displayed their unique sense of perseverance and their abilities in more than one way, be it their online learning or organizing events on digital mode. The members of WDC organized events such as documentary screening, Inaugural session by Padma Shri Deepa Malik, WOMAN-O-PEDIA etc. The WDC team also celebrated national and international women's day and organized their annual fest ASTITVA 3.0 which was based on women centric themes.

Complaints and Redressal

All the complaints shall be dealt and resolved by the Committee according to the provisions of the section 4(1) of Act, 2013. Complaint, if any, should be made immediately to the Chairperson of the College Complaints Committee or the Principal.

Note: Students against whom disciplinary action has been taken may not be granted re-admission. Such students will be liable to forfeit any prizes won or office held, if so, decided by the College Discipline Committee.

Grievances Redressal Committee (GRC)

In pursuance of the guidelines received from the University of Delhi for the Undergraduate Admissions for the Academic Year 2022-23, the College has constituted a Grievances Redressal Committee headed by Prof. Ravi Shekhar. Dr. Anupama Verma is the convener for sub-committee for SC/ST/OBC/EWS & PwD to investigate the grievances of SC/ST/OBC/EWS & PwD students relating to admission for the academic year 2022-23 in the College:

Anti-Ragging Cell

Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited within the premises of the College and any part of the Delhi University system as well as public transport. Any individual or collective act or practice of ragging constitutes gross indiscipline and shall be dealt with under Ordinance XV-C.

Ragging, for the purpose of this Ordinance, ordinarily means any act, conduct or practice by which the dominant power or status of senior student is brought to bear on students freshly enrolled or students who are in any way considered junior or inferior by other students and includes individual or collective acts or practices which involve:

- (i) physical assault or threat or use of physical force,
- (ii) Violate the status, dignity, and honor of students,
- (iii) Violate the status, dignity and honor of students belonging to scheduled castes and tribes,
- (iv) Expose students to ridicule and contempt and affect their self-esteem,
- (v) Entail verbal abuse and aggression, indecent gestures, and obscene behavior.

In case, any student, who has obtained the degree of Delhi University, is found under this ordinance committing an act or practice of ragging, he/she may be subjected under ordinance XV 15 to appropriate action for the withdrawal of degrees conferred by the University.

To this Ordinance, abatement to ragging whether by way of any act, practice or incitement will also amount to ragging.

Suggestions from students are always welcome and will be given due attention.

Anyone found guilty of ragging shall be subjected to the following punishment:

- Rustication from the College
- Suspension from the College or Classes for a limited period
- Fine with a public apology
- Withholding scholarships and other benefits
- Debarring from representation in college events
- Withholding results
- Handing over the case to Police if need be.

The students are required to submit an online undertaking as regards prohibition of ragging by visiting the following websites www.antiragging.in or www.amanmovement.org

Suggestions from students are always welcome and will be given due attention.
