III Shortlisting of candidates: Criteria and Process

1. The screening of candidate is to be done by award of points as indicated in the Guidelines for Screening and or Shortlisting of candidates for appointment of Assistant Professors in College issued by University of Delhi vide Notification No. Estab. IV/047/2023 dated 20.07.2023. (Copy attached as Annexure-I)
2. The publications to be considered for award of marks for deciding eligibility or screening purpose, as indicated in table in Section I of the screening guidelines mentioned above shall be from UGC CARE list of SCOPUS indexed or as decided by the University from time to time.
3. The research papers published before the declaration of UGC CARE list may considered if the journal in which the publication was included is now UGC CARE listed. Further, the publications after the compilation of UGC CARE list shall be considered only if the respective journal was included in the UGC CARE list at the time of publication or at the time of assessment for shortlisting.
4. As mentioned in para III(1) above, applicants scoring 55 & above will only be considered for shortlisting, with a relaxation of 05 marks for applicants belonging to SC/ST/PwBD categories.
5. Shortlisting is to be done category wise. For each category, 40 candidates would be shortlisted for the first vacancy and 20 candidates for every additional vacancy, on the basis of marks scored by the candidates of the respective category as defined in the table given in Section I of screening guidelines referred above.
6. If 40 candidates are not available, then, the applicability of 55 marks as cut-off may be relaxed till the specified number of candidate are available, subject to a maximum relaxation of upto 5 marks, i.e., 50 marks for UR and 45 for SC/ST/PwBD categories.
7. In case of bunching of candidates at the bottom, candidates securing same marks shall be shortlisted, even if, it increases the number of shortlisted candidates as mentioned in point no. 4 above.
8. Further, while shortlisting for UR category, all the applicants irrespective of their category shall be considered for shortlisting if they meet the eligibility criteria for UR category.
9. The requisite number of candidates from other categories to be shortlisted would be from the range with the cut off arrived for UR category as the upper limit. Further, the candidates shortlisted as UR, belonging to the other reserved category shall also be considered in their respective category in addition to the candidates shortlisted for the respective category as per the prescribed ratio.
